“ My Sincere condolences for the passing of Allan. He was an amazing boss. I worked for him for many many years at the Derry News. He was a true leader and friend. His love for Cara was unmeasurable. Their courtship was so beautiful to watch. He will be missed. Debbie Bayley.

“ I've had the great opportunity to know Allan since our family bought a beach house in seabrook in the early 70's. An absolute great guy and good friend. Although we had lost touch recently he will not be forgotten. RIP Allan, Rick Battistini

“ Our deepest condolences and sympathy to Joyce, Walter, Amy and family. We are so very sorry about such a loss to you all and to our community. We are all grieving for him and trying to process this shocking and sudden tragedy. We will never forget him.

We have so many memories of Allan, chats on our front porch, meeting up for dinners and lunches in Naples, his encouraging me to do CPap, and his handling the several real estate transactions for our our family.

Allan will never be forgotten by those who knew him and we will always miss his presence and laughter. His cherished Cara was there waiting for him with open arms where we pray they rest in peace together.

With deepest sympathy,
Stephen and Jackie Gacek

“ I've known Allan since I moved to Rye nine years ago. He was the listing agent on a house I looked at, and right away, I loved his quick wit, unbridled honesty and laid back style. He also took yoga at the same studio I did, was good friends with my neighbors, and I exchanged conversation with him almost daily on his beach walks with Clarence on summer mornings. He was always laughing and joking, but had a depth of heart and mind as well, and a kindness. He was a unique, fun person and very real. I will miss him greatly. May he be at peace.

“ I first met Allan 9 years ago when I moved back to NH. I was showing a listing of his in North Hampton, being newly licensed in the state selling in Florida for many years. As we all know Allan was such an inquisitive person that he wanted to know everything about the market there and then some. I think we ignored the buyers for a bit and just kept talking. He was such a wonderful funny guy. Allan you will be missed, especially in our Real Estate community. You were the King.

“ I am so, so sad to hear of Allan's passing. Our Cavalier's never got a chance to meet. I have such treasured memories of Allan. One of my first appraisals, and it turns out , one of his first real estate transactions, was in Hampton Falls nearly 30 years ago. We became such good friends. His laugh and presence will be so sorely missed. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Allan has always been a good friend to me since I met him when he sold me my first house in Hampton which happened to be across the street from his own. He always stayed cordial with me even when my expectations were too high and he should rightly be frustrated.. Allan is a great soul and I pray for more like his because I know that a world full of Allans would be a great place to live.. My warmest sympathies to his wonderful family..

“ To all the family members, I am so sorry to hear of Allan's death. Many of my best memories are of all of us on Spring Grove and Sunset Rock Road, in the pool, tramping through the woods and gathering in each other's homes. I had gotten to know Allan again in Portsmouth. He was a terrific guy. I'm thinking of you all with love.

My deepest condolences. My brother Geoffrey called to tell me about Allan. I can't imagine your loss. My memories of Allan are on Spring Grove Road--he was one of Amy's little brothers--and then years later at the Trib. I am sending love to all of you from Geoffrey, my mom Joan, and me. “ I don't always remember the first time I meet someone but I certainly recall the first time I met Allan. My son and I walked into 180 after a round of Golf. I went to the bar and my son to the bathroom. When he came back to the bar a man hollered out my sons name and said something a bit inappropriate :-). I liked Allan immediately! Our families love and prayers go out to Walt, Deb and the rest of the family. Allan was a one-of-a-kind personality and his impact on our community will continue for years to come. Rest In Peace and thank you for all of the smiles, support and advice you provided my family over the years, you will be missed.

“ I am so sad and sorry to hear of the loss of a true gentleman in our community of Realtors. I have worked with Allan for over 20 years and I know many of us will feel the void left by his death. My sincere condolences to his family, as he left this earth too soon.

“ Oh no... this can't be! I am deeply saddened to read this today. Last week I sent Allan a catchup e-mail and had not heard back from him. This was so unlike him and now I see why. Allan entered our lives over 20 years ago when he represented us in selling our home on Hunter Drive and later purchasing at Hampton Meadows. He was an absolute gem of a person, so kind and caring... always a loving smile. Such a bright shining light. He will be sorely missed. XO

“ Dear Walt, Amy, and Mrs. Phinney, an old neighbor and friend from Seabrook Beach wrote me and told me about Alan. I have such fond memories of Seabrook Beach, and your family played a big part in many of them. Please accept my heartfelt condolences and know a candle is lit for Alan in the tiny Catholic chapel in the little beach town I live in in Costa Rica.

“ I am so shocked Allan is dead. I still find it hard to believe. I spoke to him just a week ago. He had a cold, we planned to get together for a drink at his place because (he always told me) his wine was better than mine! He' was probably right of course, bu we'd laugh about that. He was a colossal snob but I would tell him he was, and we'd both laugh at that. I met him, because he sold us the house we happily live in. For some reason we became pals and hung out and had good chats and had laughs and shared some good wine and the occasional meal. Once he came to our place and he was shocked at the cheapness of the wine I offered ( he checked it out, there and then) but was forced to admit it tasted pretty good. "The flavor lingers, Lipman" Well Allan, your friendship lingers too. I'll miss you old chap.

“ Oh, Allan. This cannot be. There truly are no words to express how I feel. Always, always seeing your car on South Rd. - "running" by and stopping to play with Clarence and talk a bit to you. I will miss you, Allan. You are now back with your best friend, but too soon.

“ I walk the beach with my pup Baker, and Allen and Clarence would join us. I will dearly miss our morning strolls, banter, and laughter; watching our pups play. He will be missed by so many as he touched so many lives. Rest In Peace and God Bless

“ I only met Allan a few months ago. He was representing the sellers of a house we ended up buying. He and I hit it off immediately and on our subsequent visits to the property. Charming and witty, always nattily dressed, we exchanged tales about celebrities in the music and film business. I looked forward to getting to know him better. Such a sad turn of events... my heartfelt condolences to his family and friends.

“ I met Alan when I bought my current house over 15 years ago. He was terrific and at least 50% responsible for us ending up in the perfect spot for our family. Kindness counts and Alan was one of a kind!

“ To Joyce our former neighbor and dear friend we can only imagine the terrible heartache of Alan's passing.. he adored you. He was so much fun socially and in business... always a quick wit and so very caring of everyone. A gentleman with a soft heart Barbara & Joe Sullivan

“ Got to be close to 45 years since I've seen or even talked to Allan. My memories are of a young man in his youthful prime, older than me and of deep and sincere kindness at a time when such things were unheard of and so deeply needed. He was someone that we all looked up to and he wore that with such ease and grace. There are few people we meet on this journey who embody the term "gentleman". Allan will always be so in my memory. Walter...please accept the condolences of my entire family. My God bless and hold Allan in his heart.
