

Clay B. Daniels

December 29, 1962 - October 8, 2019

Hampton – Clay Bishop Daniels, 56, of Hampton passed away suddenly on Tuesday, October 8, 2019. Clay was born in Plainfield, NJ on December 29, 1962, son of Joann M. (Pelkey) Daniels of Hampton and the late Robert L. Daniels.

Clay was three years old when his family moved to North Hampton. He graduated from Winnacunnet High School with the Class of 1981.

Known as the ‘good looking one’ Clay didn’t let the attention go to his head, remaining thoughtful and kind towards everyone. He operated Daniels’s Odd Jobs, was a local bartender, loved blues music and playing any of his several guitars. Clay was passionate about hiking and the outdoors. He made friends wherever he went.

Clay especially enjoyed staying at his sister Deb’s home in Maine and spending time with his nephew Lee. The family is grateful Clay was there during his final hours.

In addition to his mother, Clay is survived by his siblings, Michael Daniels and his wife, Megan Maher of Newfields, David Daniels and his wife Patty of Concord, Peter Daniels and his wife, Kristen of Hampton, Deb Daniels Rousseau and her husband, Gary of Bridgeton, ME and Diana Daniels and her partner Dave Grzybowski of Hampton.

“ I'm deeply heartbroken to learn of Clay passing. I remember Clay's smile and how kind he was to everyone around him. He was also a lot of fun and very entertaining at NHES and WHS. The entire Coffey family's thoughts and prayers are with the Daniels's family during this difficult time.

“ As a classmate of Clay's from our days at NHES ('77) and WHS ('81), I am deeply saddened to learn of Clay's passing. I will remember him, always, for his boyish charm, his witty and generous spirit and his love for all things Led Zeppelin. Though I've not seen Clay since our 20th high school reunion in 2001, I know an effortless and heart-felt conversation would have emerged the next time we saw one another. May each member of the Daniels family find solace in this terrible loss by knowing how many lives Clay touched for the better...including mine.

“ So shocked and saddened to hear of Clay's passing!

I met Clay in high school through football. We were side by side on the offensive line and left/right middle linebackers on defense. More memorable though, were the many exploits off the field during those high school years and several more beyond. Also proud to say I was a fellow founding member of his first band, CCD (Carey, Claverie and Daniels). Despite our obvious talents, fame and fortune somehow alluded us.

I'm thankful that I was able to reconnect with Clay a few months back which allowed my wife to finally meet the character so central to many of my tall tales of youth on the Seacoast.

A gentle giant with GQ good looks (think JFK Jr.), more importantly, Clay possessed a sensitive, caring and generous soul. He was the proverbial guy who would give you the shirt off his back. What I will remember and miss the most about Clay though was a hearty and thunderous laugh that would come from deep within, unaffected and affirming a true enjoyment of life.

Thunder on Clay, thunder on!
