“ I was so saddened to learn of Dottie's passing. We worked together in Delmar, NY at National Commercial Bank. We always called Scott and my daughter Laura twins as they were born the same day. Dottie was a joy and so wonderful to me and a longtime friend. My heart aches and I know how dear the boys were to her and how you all must miss her. Sincere sympathy, Dorothy (Dottie too) Williams

“ I offer my sincere condolences to Dotty Malcolm's family on the loss of the woman who was one of the Seacoast's finest ladies. Although it has been many years since I carried Lincoln House banking business to Dottie's teller window at the Exeter Banking Company branch in Hampton Falls, I fondly remember her friendship, kindness and professionalism. Ken's political success and her that of her sons are reflections of the steady and caring hand that touched everything in her life. She will be missed . . .

“ My condolences to everyone. I have very fond memories of Dottie and always think of her at Christmas when someone asks if they should "save the wrapping paper!" My thoughts are with you all during this sad time. ~ Linda (Leubner) Bailie

“ My mother was smart, savvy, patient, giving, nurturing, and a wonderful teacher (to us kids). She taught me to read before I was in Kindergarten. Being left-handed, there was some trouble in showing me how to tie my shoes, but she figured out how to help me "get it." All through growing up, she kept a small notebook of all "the darnedest things" we all said. She was the family photographer, so it was rare to get her "in the shot." Because of her, we have extensive photo albums of all the events growing up. Once, I got socked with an ice all during a snowball fight, and before she put a cold cloth on my "shiner," she had to break out the camera and get a picture of my black eye. When I was 15 going on 16, I pleaded my case for a dog, and finally wore my Mom down. She grew up scared of dogs, so it was a real leap of faith for her to allow me to get a German Shepherd. Fast forward a few years and she was fork feeding the dog leftovers from the table. She had a real soft spot for that dog. I love that (Sasha and) I turned her into "dog people." Just a few random memories...
