“ Sunday was mother's day, I was in Market Basket and as I walked through the cafe I looked at the TV and there was a beautiful picture of Hampton Beach and thought my sis Elaine is saying hello!
Miss you just not the same here without you.
Love and Hugs, your sister Jan

“ I was “gifted” with Elaine’s friendship for about 25 yrs. She shared her passions for the N.E. Patriots and her beloved, Tom Brady; the “Royals”; tennis; old movies; sewing and so much more. Her greatest loves were her two daughters and grandchildren. I will truly miss her friendship. Rest In Peace my favorite “leprechaun”. Love, Denise Ricci

“ I miss you Sis

Elaine is the one who always checks on me, we laugh, we cry, we figure things out together, she is so special and caring.

I want to thank Linda and everyone for being such good friends to my sister, she was blessed to have all of you and spoke of you often, so my sincere thank you as you were also blessed to have her.

*Love to my special sister always,
Jan*
