Evelyn met and married the love of her life, her late husband, James A. Daniels in 1957, and the couple settled in Portsmouth. Upon Jim's retirement in 1968, he and Evelyn returned to the NH seacoast and built a home in Rye where they lived for the next 33 years. Evelyn worked as a waitress at Ray's Seafood Restaurant in Rye for 30 years, retired, and moved to Dover in 2001. In their retirement years, she and Jim wintered in St. Petersburg, FL and enjoyed the summers in their camper up at Bow Lake with their family. Evelyn was an active volunteer at Wentworth Douglass Hospital and was awarded the 2012 Spiritual Care Award from the hospital for the many crocheted blankets she had made for terminally ill patients.

Evelyn is survived by her daughter, Bonnie Frost of North Hampton, her son, Mark S. Daniels and his wife Laurie of Arundel, ME; her brother Willis E. Howe of Keene; her sister, Peggy Abbott and her husband Bob of Rochester; her grandchildren, Buck Frost and his wife Suzie, Krissy Sawyer and Mark Daniels and her great grandchildren, Grace, Daniel, Alex, Sophia and Molly.
