“ Let me offer my deepest condolences to Alex, Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. Wardle, Diane, and the rest of your family on the passing of your Mom and Daughter. I also wanted to share with you what 40 plus years of friendship with Linda meant to me.

At first, it didn't look like it always made sense. Linda was lighthearted and made friends so easily. She and I found common ground in long conversations about tough teachers, crushes and the Bruins. I was plagued with an impossibly difficult family situation; I was guarded and confused. Linda's family was warm and accepting.

Time passed. Somehow, we kept up with each other, at school in Boston and after too when we were both raising our own families. I bounced around the country much of that time. Still, Linda and I stayed in touch sharing each other's good and bad times. Our friendship continued to grow. Seeing Linda was always a big plus on visits back home.

More recently, we reunited before the last WHS reunion, when Linda, Alex, Kelsey and her now fiance, visited DC. It was a magical moment experiencing the monuments by moonlight together. I loved watching the seamless close-knit connections Linda enjoyed with her children and how they were all each other's own best friends. I aspired to try harder with my own family.

Class reunions were always a mixed bag of feelings for me. I wavered and wondered. Should I allow myself to revisit certain corners of a past I long left behind without a safety net? Invariably, Linda, with her all encompassing, inviting ways pulled me back in.

I'm so grateful she did. I didn't realize it then but I do now. Forty plus years of trust and friendship we shared helped me discover a sense of belonging that eluded me – back to our first days as friends. I hope she knew how much I valued our friendship. I know I can't tell her these things anymore, but I'm hoping by expressing them here now, they will help convey to you a piece of the joy she left behind.

“ My best friend ...I will miss you more than words can adequately describe. From the first day of freshman year in 1974 to present day we shared slumber parties ...cheerleading ..concerts...sports...good times and bad times. We worked together at Funland, Giovanni's and Sound Advertising Inc. You always found a way to squeeze me in! Chasing bands when we were old enough to drink....trips to Florida and Alaska and our bucket list only grew deeper. As we matured our friendship only grew stronger. We got married and had children; got divorced and cried on each other's shoulders. Our kids are all grown up now. How proud you are of Alex and Kelsey and you opened up your heart for Bryant to join the family! So special were our times together and so sad am I to have to say goodbye. But heaven has gained a beautiful daughter, sister, mother and best friend. I guess you were needed up there to do a little organizing, photography, scrapbooking, caregiving and nurturing..I cannot be selfish to wish we had a few more years to empty that bucket of things we were going to do! Rest easy knowing Alex and Kelsey will flourish with the life lessons you taught them. We all will take care of mom and dad and Yogi for you. Until we are together again, Love you. Welee “ Always such a personal feeling of loss when a customer where I work passes away. Linda came visiting Woof Pet Supply in town the same time I started 6 years ago.

Linda was such a sweet lady. But also quite the spitfire!

This sad news hit me real hard when her daughter came in with Yogi, Linda's pup.

Rest easy Linda,
You'll always be best person I've met at the shop

“ The world has lost a very special person. Linda was a special part of a wonderful, loving family and had lots of friends. Her family was always getting together for someone's birthday or event. Her daughter Kelsey and son Alex went on some wonderful family trips to NYC and DC that she was working on scrapbooks for, with so much detail. Linda was such a caring person who was willing to help out and donate her time in so many ways. She had such a great sense of humor Linda was very active with her school reunion committee. She was always loving, smiling, laughing and ready for something fun.

We have been best friends for about 25 years starting with being Girl Scout leaders, having 20 girls for 10-11 years. We had so much fun making plans for camporees, craft projects and community projects. She also did a lot with Alex and the Boy Scouts. Her favorite things in life were her family, friends and her fun-loving dog Yogi. Her hobbies were anything crafty, especially taking pictures, scrapbooking and card making. She loved making funny and intricate cards. I always love to see her Christmas card that she worked many hours on to make perfect.

Linda and I enjoyed scrapbooking and doing any crafts together. We got together weekly or sometimes on a weekend to scrap. Before this pandemic, we often went up to Joannes, Hobby Lobby or Michael's to look around and then go to IHOP for dinner. We went to many scrapbook conventions and lots of craft fairs together and made so many crafts together.

If the phone rang at 7am I knew it was her, ready to tell me something funny or ask a question or I could call her.. She was my computer person, since the joke was that computers and I don't play nice together. She was always up for a shopping or crafting adventure. We talked about how proud we were of our kids, and my girls thought of Linda as their second mom. If they couldn't find me, they would call Linda and she always knew where I was. We would talk everyday, even multiple times a day, about everything. We were helping plan Kelsey's and my daughter Kimberley's weddings, that are one weekend apart. We had lots of ideas and plans for those. My dear friend will be so sadly missed. She was a very important part of my life and my family's lives. Linda, we love you. Jan, Kimberley and Robin

“ Linda, I am so grateful for the nine years we got to spend as friends and colleagues. If there is one thing I know for sure, it's that you loved your children and family immensely, and always put them first. And of course, your love for sweet Yogi was always evident as well. Thank you for being such a supportive person in my life, and for always being willing to lend a helping hand, no matter what the task. Heaven has gained another angel, and I know I will never stop missing you.

“ How do you begin to honor a life so full of love and energy? While enjoying the adventures of cheering, beach outings & BC; it was Linda's love of her children & dedication to her parents that were the guide posts of her life. In rekindling our friendship once I relocated closer to Hampton, her love of family members highlighted every get together. The pandemic may have limited visits, but not our ability for long phone conversations, like we were still in high school. Heaven has gained an Angel
