“ I was so sad to hear of Marsha's passing. I have known her for 2 years through the newcomers club. She was the one who would always come dressed in costume for whatever our theme was for the culinary dinners. She had a great sense of humor. I always looked forward to seeing her. She will be missed greatly! Deb DelleDonne

“ I met Marcia two years ago through the book club at Seacoast Newcomers Club. She was a wonderful hostess, and I remember how she served us tea in her lovely china cups. I'll miss her gentle ways and kind words, and my deepest condolences go out to the family and everyone who was fortunate enough to have her in their lives. She certainly will be missed.

“ We are all so heartbroken about Aunt Marcia's passing. She was such a beautiful person. I will remember all the family gatherings we've been blessed to share. I was especially blessed because she was my Godmother and was always so loving and kind to me. Aunt Marcia had so many gifts! She lightened up every room she walked into with her loving, joyous spirit and infectious laugh. She had a way of making everyone she met feel so special to her. We will miss her deeply and we pray for Uncle Bob, Robert, Jessica, Douglas and Ian at this most difficult time. Please know we are there is loving spirit. Xo Mary and Jerry Sturgill and family.

“ I met Marcia in Seacoast Newcomer's Club. She joined the Culinary Capers group and she was such a good cook and lovely hostess. We hit it off right away! Due to her kind heart she had my husband and I over for Easter in 2017 and we got to meet her family. She will be sadly missed. Our condolences to her family.

“ I couldn't possibly put into words all of the wonderful memories with Aunt Marcia. She was so full of life and exuded joy and love. Every picture of her in my mind is of her smiling and laughing. She never gave a small hug or laughed quietly. She shared her heart and her love freely, without hesitation. And she never asked for anything in return but I always wanted to give her more than she gave me. She would show up just when you least expected it, often a little late, but she was always there. She was kind, generous, intelligent, talented and hysterically funny. And I am blessed to have had her in my life.

“ oh, how she will be missed and loved by so many!! my heart breaks but is also conflicted knowing she is not in pain and at peace now. love and hugs to you all.

too many wonderful memories to count!

i always looked forward in eager anticipation to bob and marcia's visit to FL to see nana, mom & dad. she was such a burst of joy and happiness ..an absolute delight to be around and full of animated stories from years past. she had a way of making you feel extra special and that everything you had to say mattered to her. she hung on every word with great interest and contributed her experiences and opinions in a gentle, understanding manner. she was always thoughtful ..sending sweet cards, gifts (wedding, books for kelsey), letters to nana it seemed at just the right times. one of my fondest memories was one afternoon when she came down to my house with dad and spent the afternoon visiting while enjoying homemade corn chowder soup! i absolutely adored her! RIP sweet marcia. ..

“ I met Marcia 15 years ago through the Seacoast Newcomers Club. We did watercolor painting together in another members home. She was full of life and so funny and just a diva. Marcia listened to me always with so much empathy and understanding. I don't think she ever knew how much she helped me and meant to me. We were together in Friendship Circle as well. I spoke with Marcia in the hospital the day she had the biopsy, and we were going to talk when she found out the results, but I never spoke with her again. She was frightened and I just wanted to be there to comfort her. She is in Heaven now singing with her wonderful voice with the angels! I know God is taking care of her now and she is smiling down on us with her wonderful sense of humor and style! Miss you classy lady!

“ I remember her being so at ease, and comfortable in her home in CT. In the kitchen especially. I recall a visit in the summer, I woke up late and everyone was gone but us. She sat with me at the kitchen table, made me a toasted bagel with some really delicious cream cheese, and told me stories about things I didn't understand at all. But the bagel was so good, and that kitchen was warm and inviting, and she was so animated and happy, I couldn't help but be enamored. I felt very lucky that day and have ever since.
