“ We knew her as Aunt Bertie May. She was one of my mom and dads' closest friends and always there for me with her sage advice. I'll miss our long West Palm luncheons and what an awesome dinner companion she was. She touched all of our lives with her strength and spirit . Love, Skip and Joy

“ Aunt Margaret, Uncle George, Melissa, Elizabeth and family, I am so sorry for your loss...I know Mimi was the anchor for your family much the way Grandmom...and then my Mom ... was for mine. It is so sad when these wonderful women leave us, but we are lucky to be able carry on their legacy...they gave us so much! I will be thinking of you this week...and sending you much love from the Shanks family <3

“ When you are troubled and sad, just remember Mimi's humor and smile, and your heart will fly like a butterfly. It was an honor knowing of her and all the love and joy she brought to her family.

My deepest condolences everyone! (Jim, Margaret, Audry)

Our deepest sympathy, Ann, Nancy and Barbara Bennett - May 31, 2019 at 04:43 PM

“ I was only eleven months old when my parents gave me the greatest honor, bringing me to their summer home directly across the street from Mrs. Mary Gray. As I grew with her children, she was just Mrs. Gray never realizing that the same lessons she taught her own children, the ones that formed them into intelligent, funny, social and hardworking individuals, were also being taught to me. It took me a bit longer to realize that these lessons were just hidden away until they were needed but learn I did, and my thanks and my love go out to her every second of every day. When I had my own children I taught them the same set of values and it worked.

I know she has many family members and great friends that are greeting her right now in that big social network in the sky, my daughter is there also giving her own thanks with a hug and a kiss.

I'm so grateful that I saw you last week.

With much love

Linda

“ In the short time I spent with Mary it felt like forever. I loved every moment I spent with her. I always made sure she was comfortable and warm and especially lathered in her lotions. I could tell that she liked it when I sang to her because she had a faint smile but that faint smile was big enough for me. She is a gorgeous woman and i will miss her, and as I've told her before I'll see you later Mary because i dont believe in goodbyes <3
