“ Mary worked at Centre School in the cafeteria. She had a great rapport with the children and was well liked. I will miss her in the neighborhood swimming in her pool with her children and grand children. I would like to offer my condolences to her husband, Al, her mother in law, Thelma and her children and grand children. Judy Geller

“ I work part-time at the Hampton Schools with Mary. I knew Mary for many years as Honey. Her nickname stayed with me throughout our life. I am blessed that I got to work with her this fall before I left for Florida. Rest in peace Honey and may your family find healing in the coming years. Lillian Vail
