“ Mary was part of our extended family and will be sorely missed. We remember especially her sweet disposition and sense of humor. She, along with her sister Helen, could have been a comedy act. Our sincere condolences to her family who she absolutely adored.

“ As much as I would love to say “ Mary rest in Peace”; for all that loved and knew her well we know that is not happening. She would never rest. She is dancing and making the other Angels with her laugh and smile. She had a gift that brought joy to others. God bless you my friend! You will be in my heart forever!

Love you!

“ I'm very sad to hear of Mary's passing. She was a favorite patient of mine over the years. We shared many great stories and laughs together, whether in the office, in the grocery store, or at the bank. She was like a family member to me, and she will be missed.
