“ Norma was one of the funniest people I knew. She laughed often and shared stories of her past. She loved her husband and so proud of her kids. It has been an honor to know her and share quality time with her. She will be missed but left an ever lasting impression on how to live. God bless Hank, Jan, Mike & Vicki. Honor & Cherish her often.....

“ Hawk and Norma were among the first people I met after moving to Hampton in Sept. of 1970. Hawk did the finest work and Norma made it all happen. When we purchased a lot from them in 1986, we became the most fortunate people in Hampton. No one, but no one could possibly have better neighbors. I love our visits and Norma's absolutely no nonsense ways. She love you kids, and shared many stories about the trials and tribulations of parenting you all as you grew into amazing adults. She was always proud of you and your families. Your secrets are safe. Norma never complained about anything, although she shared her annoyance with some sales people. After my mom passed away, I found comfort in our brief visits. She always said that she has had the best life and had no regrets. Whenever I needed a smile, I would think of her, and some of you dancing to YMCA. Like every memory I have of your parents, that is precious and priceless. Her pies made with Cortland apples were the best. My love to you all. She is walking or perhaps dancing with the angels.

“ Dear Henry, Jan, Michael and Vicki,
My sincere condolences to you and your families. I have lots of St. Germain reunion memories of her and your Dad during those years. She certainly lived a full life.

“ Our parents were in “The Club” together when they all lived on Norton Road- the ladies knitting and men playing poker, most nights. I always looked forward to those meetings being at our house as a kid, so I could spy on the grown ups. Norma and Henry were two of my favorite members. They always took time to speak to me and left me feeling quite special. I thought Norma was a very glamorous lady. I never realized until now that she and my mom were born just 8 days apart.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ I remember your parents well, 'kids'! Yes, I wear a ring of Henry's too! They are now at rest together! A reunion awaits up the road a piece.
God be with you all.
