

Patrick A. Mulvey

August 21, 1977 - March 7, 2018

Rye – It is with great sadness that the family of Patrick Allan Mulvey announces his passing on March 7, 2018, at the age of 40. He was born August 21, 1977, in Dover, New Hampshire, the beloved first born child of Bill and Judy (Bishop) Mulvey. In 1981, he became a big brother to Breanne and in 1983 he became a big brother again to Brett. As big brother, Patrick made sure his siblings knew who was in charge of the television remote, how to shoot a basketball and most importantly how much he loved them.

As a youth, Patrick could be found playing every sport with a ball. He was a four sport varsity athlete in high school, exceling in football, basketball, baseball, and track. Patrick was the captain of the football, basketball, and track teams. He earned the most valuable player awards for the basketball and track teams, winning the state high jump championship his senior year. He went on to play college basketball at Amherst College.

Patrick attended Rye Elementary and Middle Schools. He was a graduate of Saint Thomas Aquinas High School, Phillips Exeter Academy (post graduate year), Amherst College, and California Western School of Law, where he was a Justice Kennedy Legal Scholar.

He started his legal career at the International law firm of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind at their New York, NY offices. Patrick returned to his hometown of Rye, New Hampshire to be near his family and friends, at which time he joined his father's Portsmouth law firm. He later became a partner at the firm now known as Mulvey, Cornell and Mulvey.

Patrick met the love of his life, Lea Anne Henschke, in 2005 and their adventures began. They were married in 2009.

In 2011, Patrick and Lea Anne started their family and became loving parents to Lily. In 2013, Guinevere was born, and in 2015, Seamus was born. Patrick loved to do everything with his family, from hiking in the mountains to spending endless hours at the beach.

Patrick was an incredibly loving person who was loved, will be missed, and will always be cherished.

Patrick is survived by his wife, Lea Anne (Henschke) Mulvey; children, Lily, Guinevere, and Seamus Mulvey. Besides his wife and children, Patrick leaves behind his parents, Bill and Judy Mulvey; sister and brother-in-law, Breanne and Garrett Moore; brother and sister-in-law, Brett and Courtney Mulvey; grandmother, Ann Bishop; uncles and aunts, Tom and Diane Mulvey, Jim and Binny Mulvey, Joe O'Brien, Cathy Mulvey and Sam Torrey, Jay Bishop, and Allan and Tricia Bishop; father-in-law and mother-in-law, Mark and Patricia Henschke; sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Cortney and Christoph Hamman; sister-in-law, Morgan Henschke; brothers-in-law, J.R. He was predeceased in death by grandparents William and Susan Mulvey; grandfather Allan R. Bishop; Aunt Susan (Mulvey) O'Brien; Uncle Henry and Aunt Dolly Mulvey.

Visiting hours will be from 4-7 pm Thursday, March 15, 2018 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. A liturgy of the word service will be celebrated at 11 A.M. “ Bill and Judy:

So saddened and sorry to hear of Patrick's passing. I remember with such fondness the meetings I would be in at Bill's office and the topic would quickly turn to how Patrick was doing on the basketball court at STA, PE and Amherst. I loved hearing you talk about him and I know how proud you were of him. I also had the sincere pleasure of dealing with Attorney Patrick Mulvey on a few occasions. He was always courteous, genuine and a damn fine Attorney. A true reflection of his parents. I am presently away with my family but my thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family.

“ I played basketball with Patrick at Amherst College. He was a friendly, kind soul whom everyone liked a great amount. He was always in a good mood, and brightened every room. He was also an excellent player. I will always consider him a friend.

“ Pat and I met freshman year in high school. As the father of a high school freshman, Jack (who was also born on August 21st), I appreciate how hard parents work to raise good kids. One of the biggest factors is their circle of friends. If they have good friends, they'll be a good person. Pat was a great person and a friend to everyone with whom he came in contact – it is through them that his legacy will no doubt live on. I regret not being able to attend on Thursday or Friday, but a family funeral is taking me out of town. My family's thoughts and prayers will be with the entire Mulvey family.

“ If Woody Harrelson hadn't taken the role for "White Men Can't Jump" Pat would have been perfect for it. He was a terrific athlete, an intense competitor, and he always let you see that he was having fun. He was a good teammate who kept his focus on the end goal but never let it get in the way of being a caring person. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing way too soon. My heart goes out to his family.

“ I met Patrick a couple times at Bill's office. I knew he had cut his teeth after law school at Paul Weiss in NYC. You had to be a top shelf lawyer to get into that Firm. A long time ago, I worked a few floors down on 345 Park Ave. from that firm. I had, wayback then, to make a decision to leave NYC to come to New Hampshire to raise a family. I never have regretted doing so. I imagine how Patrick came to make the same decision and embarked upon a life in his 30s to raise a family in New Hampshire like I did. So sad for him and his family that he wasn't able to enjoy seeing the journey through. My best wishes to his young family. May the perpetual light shine upon him.

“ I was a classmate of Pat's in high school and considered him a friend. May God bless him and his family as they move through this time of mourning. What a blessing it was to have known him and see his smiling face every morning on homeroom. He will forever be watching over his family and those he held dear.

“ My great memory of Patrick is helping me (& Bill) run the track program at Rye Elementary. Patrick was one of my fastest runners. He kept that wonderful smile all the while he ran! It was the first time I ever coached track (no one else wanted it) and if I didn't have the Mulveys it would have been a sorry sight. Patrick's smile made us all smile. Now without it, we are very sad. I will never forget him.

“ My first memory of Oatricj was as a child ,maybe he was 9 or 10.He was helping referee a soccer game. His warmth and intelligence shone through even as a young man. He continued in this path of helping youth ,being a big brother and Oldest son. My sincerest condolences to Judy and Bill. No one is ready to live beyond their children. I will remember Patrick's warm smile gentle manner an judgement free manner. May God hold you on the palm of His hand.

“ There are just so many memories to share! So may years and so many laughs to be remembered. Patrick to say you will be missed is the greatest understatement of the century. Your grand stature and huge smile is embedded in my memory! Just a few weeks ago when I hugged you I told you I forgot how tall you were but also noted that I was shrinking! You are in Gods hands now and have been tasked with watching over your beautiful family from Heaven. Lea Anne, Bill, Judy, Bre, Brett and family my thoughts and deepest prayers are with all of you. May all the wonderful years of memories help ease your pain and grant you peace as your healing process begins.

Love and prayers always,
Donna

“ Mulvey and Henschke Families,

There will never be the right words to take your sadness away. Please know that there are so many people thinking of you and sending you all love. Our hope is that the good times with Patrick will help ease your pain. He will be with you forever, as you listen to the giggles of his children, watch them grow, see the amazing sunrises and sunsets. Your love for him, and his for you, will remain forever in your hearts and minds. May the road rise up to meet him. May the blessing of the rain be on you the soft sweet rain. May it fall upon your spirit so that all the little flowers may spring up, and shed their sweetness on the air. May the blessing of the great rains be on you, may they beat upon your spirit and wash it fair and clean, and leave there many a shining pool where the blue of heaven shines, and sometimes a star.
