“ I didn't know Paul very well, but in the 10 years that he lived in New Hampshire with us, I got to see him often. One specific memory I have is when he would come over for Easter and help hide the eggs with Mom. When the hunt began, I still remember how he'd walk around with me and Ema as we scrambled for the precious candy-filled eggs. And up until his last day, he was a true part of our family and dinner table for every Easter, Christmas, Thanksgiving, and all of Gram's birthdays as well as his. He loved seeing our dogs, Gracie and Maggie and the feeling was mutual for them as well.

I learned a lot about Paul, including how he always drank black coffee, he'd always be wearing his signature jeans and flannel shirt, and most of all, how he loved turkey, no matter what holiday it was. I will always remember these things about Paul and keep them in my heart whenever I think of him.

“ Only knew Paul for about 2 years. Would visit him every to weeks to do chores. Very intelligent and kind. A man of few wants. I asked him one day if he had a wish and he could have anything he wants . What would it be. He said a turkey. I replied as a pet or to eat. To eat he said. He loved his family and the holidays. Especially Thanksgiving. He will be missed

“ Uncle Paul- we shared many meals together at Grammy's and you were clearly passionate about your meals. You were a staple of my youth- always showing the dogs some love and belly rubs, relaxing with a Diet Pepsi and a smoke. We loved sledding from the top of the hill next to your house - all the way down the driveway. Forbidden but fun! Thanks for all the burger bucks! I'll miss you! Special thanks to Norrie for making sure you were taken care of these past 10 years. ~Cati

“ One of my favorite memories of Paul is when he took me out for a ride in his corvette. Then he stopped and let me drive. Something special I have never forgotten. Love to all Bev Daly (cousin).
