Comments

“ I met Robert when he was just a kid, back in the early 80's. I met him while working at Basic Computer. He had a sense of humor that took people off guard if you didn't know him. He was a very well intentioned, and very determined young man. He wanted to be the best at what he attempted, and usually was. It was a pleasure to know him during those younger years, and I am very sorry for your loss. I wish God Speed to his friends and family. May Robert rest in peace.
