

Rosamonde C. Little

August 15, 1926 - April 3, 2019

Exeter – Rosamonde (Cole) Little, 92, of Exeter formerly of Beverly, MA and Hanover, NH, passed away peacefully at Riverwoods, surrounded by her loving family Wednesday, April 3, 2019.

Roz was born August 15, 1926 in Salem, MA, a daughter of the late Howard and Doris (Enslin) Cole. She was raised in Salem and Beverly Massachusetts and graduated from Beverly High School with the Class of 1943. Shortly after graduation from college, Roz married her high school sweetheart, the late George R. Little, and they settled in Marblehead to raise their family.

Roz earned her Bachelor's Degree in Nutrition from Simmons College of Boston and after working for a few years, focused her life on taking care of her family. She and George moved to Hanover in 1971 where they founded Executone New Hampshire, a telecommunications business. Upon George's death in 1974, Roz accepted the challenge of managing the business alongside her son Bradford. They moved the business to Stratham in 1977. Eventually her son Richard and daughter Cindy joined the business as well. She continued to be active in the business until 2001.

Roz's early years were spent enjoying time and activities on the coast in the North Shore area. Sailing was a favorite activity in her earlier years. In the later years, Roz loved spending time in Wolfeboro with her family. She loved watching the grandchildren and great grandchildren learn to swim and learn to ski. Roz also was an accomplished knitter and her family will cherish the warmth of her love in the sweaters she created for us. Her most cherished times were at family holiday gatherings for Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter, the annual 4th of July celebration in Marblehead with the extended family and simple family moments. She felt she was very fortunate to have had a close relationship with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and to share many precious moments together with them.

Surviving family members include her four children: Richard Little and his wife Ellen of Hampstead, Bradford Little and his wife Meg Driscoll of Stratham, Jeffrey Little and his wife Kathy of Hampton and Cindy Migliori and her husband David of Manchester. She also leaves her nine grandchildren: Jennifer Weissman and her husband Todd, Katie Little, Enslin Levasseur and her husband Ryan, Taylor Little, Shaffer Little, Greg Little and his wife Leah, Page Allogramento and her husband Adam, Scott Migliori and his wife Jill and Kristin Logan and her husband Duke. “ Ros joined us at Seacoast Hospice as a caring and willing volunteer. It is good to know that she received the same support and care that she provided to patients and families,

“ We remember both Ros and George fondly...good neighbors a long time ago. We also remember Brad, Jeff and Cindy as teenagers staying at their cottage in Bristol summers and vacations. We're happy that you were able to enjoy Ros for so many years and that she'll finally be able to be with George again. God bless!

“ Gram, I feel so lucky to have had you in my life for so long. There are so many memories that I have of fun times at Wolfeboro, the Cabin, Riverwoods, holidays, and even sick days spending time at your apartment above Executone. I am so grateful that you were able to meet Todd and Lucas and Teddy. We all miss you but smile at the thought that you are finally reunited with Grampy and your family and friends that you have missed for so long. I hope that this picture is just a glimpse of the dancing that you may be doing right now (pain free of course)!
Love, Jen (and Todd, Lucas & Teddy)

“ Mom, you will always be in my heart and at the core of who I am. You instilled in me strength, values and gentleness to deal with life's ups and downs. You taught me to be a mom & a grandmother who tries to be always there with overflowing love, lots of laughter, unwavering support & the ability to treasure each moment. I am grateful for the thought that you and Dad are together again, after such a long time. I will forever cherish all of the times we shared, your eyes sparkling when you saw us, your smile & warm hugs and holding your hands – love lasts forever.

Cindy Migliori - April 06, 2019 at 02:30 AM

We will miss you but know you are in a better place. Say "Hi" to Dad, Nana and Grampy.

Love,
Jeff
