“ I worked with Sammy at J.D. Cahill, from September, 1963 thru March, 1966, when I went off to broadcasting school in Boston. He was one of the most unforgettable characters I've ever met in my 73 years. Always called me "Red" and was fun to be around I've often asked over the years of former Cahill employees, how Sammy was and believe me, this question went on for decades, that's how unforgettable he was. My condolences to his family.
