

Scott A. Michaud

July 9, 1972 - October 13, 2020

Dover – Scott Aaron Michaud, 48, of Dover and formerly of Portsmouth, passed suddenly and unexpectedly on Tuesday, October 13, 2020. Scott was born on July 9, 1972 in Exeter, the only son of Gerald and Paula (Darbyshire) Michaud of Farmington.

Scott was raised in Portsmouth and graduated from Portsmouth High with the Class of 1991. For many years, Scott worked at Federal Cigar of Portsmouth, and for the past eleven years, he worked at SubCom of Newington.

Scott was known for his wry sense of humor, but also for his kind, reliable nature; he often went out of his way to help friends and family at a moment's notice. He was an animal lover who usually became best pals with any family pet he came across. Scott also had incredible artistic talent, some of which has been published in comic books and CD cover designs.

In addition to his parents, Scott leaves his sister, Michelle O'Donnell and her husband, Nick of Dracut, MA, and several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Due to the pandemic, services will be scheduled for a later date. Arrangements are by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home, Hampton. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the [NH SPCA]<https://nhspca.org/donate-today/> or the [American Heart Association]www.heart.org/donate

“ You were a trustworthy and honorable man, if a very lonely one at times. I enjoyed being your friend and your roommate. Miss you, man.

“ Thank you all, for your condolences. His sudden passing has been quite a shock to all of us, and it's good to know he will be remembered fondly by so many people. I've also set up a Facebook group for friends and family as a more informal way to share stories, photos, and some of Scott's artwork - the group is set to private but visible via Facebook search (look for "Scott Michaud Memorial Group"). You don't have to be Facebook friends with me to get accepted into the group page, though if you'd like to add me there, that's fine too.

Of course, I realize that not everyone uses Facebook, so we welcome people to continue posting here if they prefer. We can't have a service to Scott right now due to the pandemic, so this is our best option to honor my brother's memory.

“ I tried searching for this group on Facebook, but I can't find it. Could you post a link here, Michelle?

Amanda - October 26, 2020 at 01:38 PM

“ For some reason, I can't copy and paste the link here directly to the page. If you do a search, don't add the quotes. Sorry for the technical difficulties!

Michelle - October 27, 2020 at 07:28 PM

“ So sorry for you and your family loss he was such a great person and so kind ♡♡♡

Carolyn Timmons - October 28, 2020 at 01:47 AM

“ For some reason today when I searched it came right up, even though it didn't on multiple tries the other day. I just requested to join. Thanks!

“ Jerry and Paula, I am so sorry to read this tragic news. I remember Scott from those days when our church was meeting at the Little Harbor School. He must have been a sixth grader when we first crossed paths, yet, even then his artistic talents were clearly evident. May God grant you some measure of peace as you navigate these days of mourning.

Craig Everett - October 22, 2020 at 08:48 AM

“ Thank you for your kinds words about Scott. I am really surprise at how many people have seen his art work. I realized he had a gift when he was about 4 years old.

Paula - October 22, 2020 at 11:36 PM

“ Thank you Craig.

Gerald - November 11, 2020 at 06:31 PM

“ Scott and his dad used to come into the art supply store in the mall many years ago. Scott was such a talented and kind person. I always enjoyed looking at his wonderful artwork and talking about whatever comic books he was into at the time. My sincere condolences to his family and friends.

“ So sad I grew up with Scott. He was a great guy and will be missed

Eddie brown - October 28, 2020 at 01:22 PM

“ Thank you Eddie.

Gerald - November 11, 2020 at 06:29 PM

“ What sad new to heard about Scott. I was a classmate of his back in the day and I will miss bumping into him downtown.

“ Many moons ago I met Scott at the Elvis Room. I was in a band at the time called The Bonnie Situation. I saw Scott working on some illustrations and I was amazed by his work. I asked him to do an album cover for us. Not sure where the concept came from, although people loved it. My condolences to his family and friends. He was a gifted artist and a nice person.

Eric W Ott - October 20, 2020 at 02:02 PM

“ I knew Scott from when I ran the Elvis Room in Portsmouth back in the 90's. He was always smiling. I will remember that dimply smile forever as well as his kindness and calm. He seemed to calm the air around him! He was an exceptional artist and how I wish I had my business partner Dawn Marie to confer with as to whether we have work of his somewhere. To his family, I'm so very sorry for your loss. Know that there are many who mourn his too soon departure.

Barbara Steinbach - October 20, 2020 at 09:06 AM

“ We'll always remember how he was. Thank you Barbara

“ Jerry and Paula, I am so sorry for your loss. Scott was a great friend to my son Kevin Cray and he helped me so much when Kevin died. I will miss seeing him at work, we would pass each other in the parking lot at the change of shifts. I appreciated his talent and his sense of humor. He will be missed.

“ I am sorry for your past loss of Kevin. I know Scott and Kevin were great friends. Loosing a child...it is difficult to articulate.

Paula - October 22, 2020 at 11:47 PM

“ They will both be missed and remembered.

Gerald - November 11, 2020 at 06:37 PM

“ Scott was a very kind, intelligent, and artistically talented individual. I had the honor of hanging out with him as youths in a mystical place called The Elvis Room. Was always enamored by the pieces of art he was always working on, that he would show me while sitting at the bar drinking coffee. His picture is exactly as I remember him. Rest in peace good sir.

Elijah Davenport - October 19, 2020 at 05:21 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Scott from many late night cups of coffee, where he shared his amazing wit with an appreciative audience, and we were privy to witnessing his stunning artistic talent bring images both real and imagined come to life. He will be greatly missed.
