“ I have been getting my glasses at the Hampton Vision Center for several years. I live in Maine, but the trip to visit with Sully and Liz was always rewarding. Not only their expert service, but the warm friendship was really great. I will miss Sully very much. It's hard to accept the reality that he won't be there to greet me. Liz, I hope to keep in touch and maintain our friendship.

Much Love,
Jackie Emery

“ We met Sully years ago when he came to Seabrook Sta.to fit the workers for safety glasses. Then we started going to the store for all our eye care needs. Sully, Liz and the staff always made us feel like friends coming for a visit rather than just a place to buy glasses. We always enjoyed Sully's wit, great conversations,...and the laughter! Sometimes I would stop in just for a 'hello' and a short conversation after a very stressful day, it was so therapeutic! That's how I remember Sully....an angel of a man, full of wonder, humor, and kindness. You will be missed in this near future, but we hope & Pray we will meet again. We love you Sully

“ Dear Liz and family~ as well as the entire Hampton Vision family, I am so very sorry to read of Sully's passing. I know him only through the store, always a warm, quiet, friendly presence. Whether it was for an eye exam, new frames, broken frames or whatever-Sully would check in to see if I needed anything and just chat. Made you feel like more than a customer. Clearly he, and you Liz, built a business to feel proud of and much much more. Sully's memory will always be a blessing for so very many.

“ I met Sully when I first relocated from VT to the beach 20 summers ago when I was looking for the 'perfect frame' and discovered we were both from VT - me from Barre and him from way up there in the Northeast Kingdom - and we'd talk about the long trips up there in all kinds of weather as we were both on this parallel path of caring for our elderly parents still in VT. We was a wonderful, gentle and caring man and I will miss him very much. Sincere condolences to his wife, family and co-workers at this sad time. Jo Ellen Pirie, Hampton Beach

“ I met Sully in the mid 80's when I began my career in optics. He was a kind, patient mentor and friend to me. He always had a smile on his face and a sweet calm about him. I fortunately reconnected with Sully a few years ago and found him to be the same modest, soft spoken gentleman that I knew and loved. My heart goes out to Liz, his family and his work family. I pray that the loss you've endured will be lessened in knowing how fortunate we all were to have had Sully in our lives. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May he now rest in everlasting comfort and peace.

“ Sully was a such wonderful, great man. He always had a smile and a pleasure to be around. He will be missed by all of us who were fortunate to know him.

“ To the Sullivan family. I Giant has left our midst, he was a very special man. One of great love and compassion . He left his mark on the universe and all those who were his clients and then friends. Sully we will miss you and Liz is now in charge of holding that love you so unselfishly gave. Liz we will always see you as the strength the love and the gracious woman that Sully so dearly loved.
