“ Bill, such a wonderful, funny man; I never quite knew what joke or funny thing you would say next. You always made me smile, Bill.
I shall cherish my memories of our Newmarket Recreation van trips to various locations and the chance meetings at the local Newmarket eatery. I am a better person for having known you.

“ Billy was a very dear friend of my dad's{ Clarence Perkins Jr.} They went hunting together for my years. Lived in the same neighbor hood for years. As time went by my dad got sick and Billy would always stop by to visit my dad and my mom. Have his coffee and as usual tell his jokes. As my dad and Billy were friends, so was Marcia his daughter, and myself very close friends. As we are still today. I remember Marcia going to visit her dad. Sometimes I would go with her. She would take her dad to church with her often. Then as time went by, Billy ended up living with Marcia until his passing. She was the best daughter a father could ever ask for. My heart goes out to Marcia and her brother Ronnie for there loss. And also his other family that came later in time. Marcia White will always be my family. She has a heart of gold. And I'm sure her dad loved her very much. Teresa Perkins-Lund “ Billy was a very funny man indeed. Always making you laugh. In my heart I will always remember the old days growing up with Marcia, Ronnie, and Ricky. And all the times that Bill quizzed us over and over again on all of the States and the Capitols. That will forever stay in my mind. Great times. It is always hard losing a loved one and my heart truly goes out to Ronnie and Marcia and the rest of the family.
