“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Mr. Mason, my middle school math teacher. What a wonderful guy he was! Mr. Mason was a teacher respected you and expected the same,... and was one who you could turn to and who actually listened. The lesson I remember most was bringing in our favorite recipes and creating a class cookbook, but before we made and brought in the food, Mr. Mason turned our recipes into Math problems. It was interesting and fun! I'll also never forget my first girlfriend at the school (and ever) who I wanted to surprise with flowers in her locker but I didn't know her combination. Mr. Mason was the keeper of the keys. I pleaded with him, but he just couldn't do it. It wasn't allowed. Until we did. I'm very persuasive,... and he likes me, but he kept a very close eye! Happy Valentines Day, Erin. Thank you Mr. Mason. RIP my friend!

“ A Poem for Alan Leigh Mason

*When I die
If you need to weep
Cry for someone
Walking the street beside you.*

*And when you need me
Put your arms around others
And give them what you need from me
You can love me most by letting
Hands touch hands, and
Souls touch souls.*

*You can love me most by
Sharing your joys
Multiplying your good deeds.*

*You can love me most by
Letting me live in your eyes
And not in your mind.*

*And when you say a Prayer for me
Remember what our Faith teaches,
Love doesn't die
People do.
So when all that's left of me is love
Give me away.*

“ As a teenager I worked with Alan one summer when he worked as the chef at the Stanchion Room Restaurant in Hampton (Louis waited tables for a while). He was a great guy, lots of fun, and provided lots of great memories. We took him fishing once - it didn't go well but we had a great time. He wrote a recommendation for me to get into college.

My condolences to Louise and his family.

“ Alan and I were childhood neighbors and friends and eventually high school classmates. My wife, Linda (Watkins), was also his high school classmate. We both have clear memories of Alan as warm and friendly and quick to see the best in people. We send our heartfelt condolences to Louise and family.

My memories of "Uncle Al" include some of my favorite teaching years at Pentucket. Always ready to try something new and well loved by all he was a great member of our team. May you, Louise, and family be comforted by memories of good times you shared. May he rest in peace.

Grew up with the Masons around the corner. Alan, my brother David and Charlie Claeys always ran to school to avoid being late! Remember dance classes on Friday night. Louise and I shared many memories at ICHS. Have lost touch but not the memories. I'm sure you all will miss him, dearly. In my thoughts and prayers.

“ We hold Mr. Mason and his family in our prayers. Alan will be remembered in our hearts, thoughts and prayers as the kind man who always greeted us with a smile. We looked forward to seeing him and Mrs. Mason while out and about and often enjoyed a few laughs when enjoying a meal at Wilbur's. He will be remembered for his hard work and commitment to the Parks & Rec. Dept., his enduring commitment to making the community he loved a better place and for his kindness. Our sympathies are with you, his family, during this time of profound loss.
