“ Al, Gay, Tim and Jeff,
Growing up in Dover, your dad seemed to be everywhere there was a youth sporting event. One of the good guys around town, he always spoke so proudly about all of you. It was so easy to strike up a conversation with him.
Jeff, when we officiated football together I do not recall a time that you did not speak lovingly of your dad. I greatly enjoyed the stories you would tell about your dad coaching and how he strived to maintain his independence later in life.
Gay, in high school you had the same fun loving personality as your dad. I look forward to seeing you at our class reunion next year.
My condolences to all of you.

Sherry,
We're very sorry for the loss of your father. May your memories of him sustain you during this difficult period.
