“Energy cannot be created or destroyed, it can only be changed from one form to another.” –Xani

“I hope my best friends meet boys who love them as much as I love them, because sometimes I think they forget how well they deserve to be treated.” – Xani

Alexandra Coleman’s family wrote the following obituary using words from her own writings, envisioning what she would have wanted to say.

I didn’t go anywhere, I’m still around all of you.

I’ll be present at my homes in Greenland, NH and Rochester, MA on a regular basis, and at my favorite work locations at the Beach Plum and Bruno’s Pizza.

Don’t forget to dance.

My Style: “Think a ghetto-ish Richard Simmons. I’m a white gurl from NH that grew up watching MTV; I don’t know what I’m doing. My background in Ace of Base routines and a healthy Spice Girls obsession (along with Girl Power) keeps me from disgracing myself completely.”

Even though I'll be in your lives daily, I'll miss the physical contact with everyone, especially my fam. Parents, Sheri & Jack McCaughey, and Jaime & Kathie Coleman; Sibs, John Coleman, Will Coleman, Melissa McCaughey and Amanda McCaughey; Grandparents, Nelda Englehart, Beverly Coleman, Joe & Mary McCaughey, and Stephen Chmiel; and too many Aunts, Uncles and Cousins in the Coleman, Englehart, Chmiel and McCaughey families to list here.

I left you all so early. I'm predeceased by Granddads Jack Englehart and Jim Coleman; Grandmom Emily Chmiel; and my beloved cat, Pepsi.

There will be a celebration of my life at The Portsmouth Country Club, 80 Country Club Lane, Greenland, NH on Saturday April 30th, 4:00 to 6:00 PM.

My family requests that flowers please be omitted and suggests donations for a bench to be placed in a remembrance garden in my name to be located on Ocean Road in Greenland. Donations may be made to Sheri McCaughey, 2 Fairway Drive, Greenland, NH 04840 or to the charity, Kitty Angels, P.O. Box 638, Tyngsboro, MA 01879 online at www.kittyangels.org or call 978-649-4681.

“ Alexandra was always a shining star in the dark void. She was care free witty and amazingly beautiful both outside and within. I am glad to have been your distant friend. I am glad I was able to help you from time to time, when you were in need. Unfortunately, due to busy schedules, we never got to hang out in person. Now sadly, we never will in this existence. Thanks for the many conversations we had and for bringing some joy into my life. I was blessed to have known You, if only from afar.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. She was a beautiful young women, and waited on me at Beach Plum and was always so friendly, kind, and helpful. I didn't know her, only through my son Patrick who worked with her at "The Plum". May she soar with the angels.

“ Dear Sheri and family- I knew as soon as I saw her picture that it was your daughter. I recognized her happy eyes and beautiful smile and put two and two together. You would bring her and her brother over on summer days when I lived in Portsmouth. She loved eating raw Oddles of Noodles! I'm so terribly sorry and sad for your loss. Words can't express the profound sadness I feel right now for your family. God Bless and be strong. Andrea Smith (L'Italien)

“ Dear Sheri and family, I'm sorry to hear of Xani's passing, I know how much love and beautiful color she brought to the family. I've always loved her free spirit and determination. She will always be close to you, just feel her in your heart. she is there. Her laughter is there, you can hear her. Her strong spirt will follow you and watch over you. Just know she is with you always ❤️ Sending hugs and kisses to you, I am out of the states until Wednesday Sheri, but my heart is with you and your family. I will see you as soon as I can, love you, I will be thinking of Xani and her most important journey she is on now. Hold together strong.

“ *Dear Xani,
We knew each other in childhood. I am glad for the memories we had in Cheerleading - the sleep overs we had! How fun! We were all so hyper... the games we all played were so silly and fun. You had a clear passion for life! I'm so sorry to hear you left us so young. But I know you will stay close to your family and friends hearts. <3*

My deepest condolences & love to all of you.

*All my best,
