During his 20 year military career, he proudly served as a YN1, court reporter, on seven ships. After retirement in 1966, he served as the Building Inspector for the town of Hampton, Scoutmaster for the Boy Scouts, Troop 177, and Square Dance caller in Salisbury Beach, MA.

Alfred shared 4 years of courtship and 62 years of marriage with his wife, the late Winifred B. (Corliss) Jaques, who predeceased him on June 14, 2012. They were married on June 18, 1950 at the Old South Presbyterian Church in Newburyport, MA. During their storybook marriage, Al and Winnie enjoyed dancing, camping, playing golf, spending quality time with family and friends, and enjoying winters at their home in Ruskin, Florida.

Alfred leaves behind two daughters, Cynthia A. Clark and her husband John R. Clark of Rye and Meredith L. Jaques of Ruskin, Florida. In addition to his daughters, he leaves behind three grandsons, Joshua Clark and his wife Kristen of Hampton, Jacob Clark of Hampton and Brendon J. Patrick of Ruskin, Florida and his three great granddaughters, Emma, Maddie, and Natalie.

Visitation is now scheduled for Sunday, August 7, 2022 from 1 to 3 PM. Burial will be private with full military honors in the New Hampshire State Veterans Cemetery. In lieu of traditional remembrances, donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or The American Heart Association.
