

Alice L. Atkins

August 13, 1936 - March 19, 2022

Seabrook, NH – Alice L. Atkins, 85, most recently of Seabrook, and longtime resident of Charleston, WV, went home to Jesus March 19, 2022 at 2:50 am after a lengthy illness. She was born in Beckley, WV on August 13, 1936, the daughter of the late Roy Ferris and Daphine (Wheeler) Ferris Painter and the late Snowden Painter.

Alice, with her husband Pastor Kenneth Atkins, a retired interim missionary clergyman for the Bible Missionary Church, traveled the country with their family helping churches become more stable. She faithfully served her church community spiritually and hosted many at her table.

Married on July 4, 1952, Alice shared nearly 70 years of marriage with her husband. She was dedicated as a wife and as a mother to six children. She spent many years following her dream as an accomplished seamstress making bridal gowns, doing custom sewing and alterations.

In addition to her husband, she leaves six children: Penny (Jerry) McCallister, Timothy (Susan) Atkins, all of Charleston, WV, Sandra (Warren) Whipple of Bloomingrose, WV, James (Thao) Atkins of Akron, OH, Joseph (Victoria) Atkins of Harrisville, RI and Deborah (Kurt) Groder of Seabrook, NH, with whom she resided. She is also survived by 24 grandchildren, 47 great grandchildren, 2 great-great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by a grandchild and two great grandchildren.

A visiting hour will be held from 11:00 A.M. – 12 noon on Wednesday, March 23, 2022 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton. Services will immediately follow at 12 noon in the funeral home. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. A service will follow at Curry Funeral Home in Alum Creek, WV with a burial at Graceland Memorial Park, South Charleston, WV.

“ She was one of the first people to hold me when I was born, she always let me know I was her baby boy, she always gave me this heart melting smile every time I told her I loved her, and while smiling that sweet smile, she always responded with " And I love you honey".
