“ When we saw each other at gatherings, we had some good laughs. she was a sassy lady, I loved her. She loved her sweets. I'd sneak to her occasionally. But had to b careful her daughter Laura wouldn't see. She's b like hurry up, hide it lol. What she don't see won't hurt her . But Laura knew. We all laugh. I'm her sons wife's sister Nicole. This was at her great grand daughters baptism. She was so happy to be there. Loved miss Luna. Alice will b deeply missed. RIP sweet Alice. I'll always remember u, our good times.

“ I am very sorry to hear of Alice's passing. She was a good person with a big personality and even bigger heart. She was very kind to my grandmother, Doris Davis. At my grandmother's memorial service, the pastor asked anyone in the parish if they would like to share a memory of her. Understandably, this is a request that usually goes unfulfilled as many people are not comfortable giving impromptu speeches at large gatherings. Not Alice! She walked right to the alter and gave a beautiful and very thoughtful oratory. She was a real pro, I will always remember that moment. My condolences go to all of her family.
