Seabrook - Alice R. (Schrempf) Phillips, 84, of Seabrook, and formerly of PA, passed away peacefully at Hyder Hospice House in Dover on Sunday, May 19, 2024. She was born in Newburyport, MA, on December 11, 1939, to the late Harold and Velma (Hawkes) Schrempf.

Raised in Newburyport, Alice attended Newburyport schools. Following her education, she worked at various local factories in the area. In 1957, she started her family with the birth of her oldest child, Harold. She later obtained her real estate license and worked for the Gallery of Homes in Plaistow for a time.

Alice enjoyed shopping with family, especially for shoes, pocketbooks, blankets, and clothing. She was a generous spirit, always gifting to her family and friends. Known for her impeccable style, she was always well put together and classy. Alice was also a poodle fanatic, having bred them for a time. When she moved back to NH in her later years, she brought her teacup poodle named "Junior", who she rescued. She cherished him, and the two were inseparable.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughter Paula George of Shermans Dale, PA. She also leaves her niece and best friend Cathy Gosselin, sisters Marjorie Spraggins, Diane Pushard, and Priscilla Terry, and her very special baby Bella.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her son Harold Mirabito, and brothers Harold, Larry, and Scott Schrempf.
