

Alvin H. Locke

November 9, 1936 - July 10, 2021

Seabrook – Alvin H. Locke, 84, of Seabrook, passed away peacefully on Saturday, July 10, 2021 at the Exeter Center where he had been staying since becoming ill. Mr. Locke was born on November 9, 1936 in Seabrook, a son of the late Alfred W. and Florence (Merrill) Locke.

Alvin was a life-long resident of Seabrook. He had worked at the former Welpro Shoe Company and more recently, Bailey Corp of Seabrook.

Alvin enjoyed going to the stock car races with his family and watching racing on television. He loved to dance and particularly liked going to the old Seabrook Canteen dance hall. His true passion was anything pertaining to John Deere products and was very proud of his John Deere tractor. Above all else, Alvin loved his family, especially his nieces and nephews and he also did a wonderful job caring for his mother in her later years.

He is survived by his sisters; Beverly Perkins and her husband Harold and Deborah Souther and her husband Norman and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brother, Robert Locke and his sister, Joan Wilson and his nephew, Bruce Andrews.

Visiting hours will be from 11-1 PM on Thursday, July 15, 2021 in the Remick

& Gendron Funeral Home ~ Crematory, 811 Lafayette Rd., Hampton. Services will follow the visitation starting at 1 PM in the funeral home. Interment will be in Elmwood Cemetery, Seabrook.

“ I loved Alvin! He always patted me on the top of my head and said, " it feels like chicken wire!" hahaha because I used so much mousse and hair spray to keep the curls in their shape.
