

Andrew Mattison Raucci

December 8, 1981 - January 29, 2025

North Hampton – Andrew Mattison Raucci, 43, of North Hampton, passed away suddenly on Wednesday, January 29, 2025, at Portsmouth Regional Hospital surrounded by his family. He was the loving husband of Katherine (Lowell) Raucci.

Born in New York City to Marian Mattison and Marshall Raucci Jr., Andrew lived many lives and had more experiences and careers than most others in his brief 43 years. He was raised in East Greenwich, RI and attended Bishop Hendricken High School. Rhode Island fostered his love for fishing and surfing, passions he aspired to pass down to his children. Growing up, he spent many winters skiing and teaching snowboarding in Waterville Valley, NH. It was on the mountain where he first met Kate, who years later became his wife.

Following his graduation from Pepperdine University in 2004, Andrew commissioned as an officer in the United States Marine Corps. He ascended in rank to Captain and honorably served his country in Iraq as a Tank Platoon Commander. He was proud to serve his country; that service went on to define a core piece of his being. Andrew often said one of his greatest blessings was bringing all his guys home. After his honorable discharge from the Marines, he earned his M.B.A. from the University of Rhode Island and worked in the financial service industry as a portfolio manager.

Andrew and Kate reconnected on Christmas day in 2013 and were married at St. Matthew's in Plymouth, NH during the summer of 2015. After marrying, they moved to North Hampton, NH to raise their growing family. Andrew, continually seeking new challenges or hobbies, left his job working for a prominent bank and embarked on a new career as an electrician. He was accepted into The IBEW Local Union 490 apprentice program, obtained his Journeyman License and quickly became a Master Electrician. He then went on to start his own union electrical contracting business – Veterans Electric, LLC in 2023. Throughout his life he was active in the community, serving on several boards for different nonprofit organizations, committees within IBEW Local Union 490, and, most recently, was a member of the Budget Committee for the Town of North Hampton.

Andrew loved deeply and completely, was extraordinarily loyal, and was passionate about always learning. You could find him most nights dancing in the kitchen with his wife or wrestling on the floor with his children. He leaves behind a legacy of a life well lived and a heartbroken family.

In addition to his wife, Andrew is survived by his children, Andrew “Finn”, Jax, and Coraline, his parents Marian Mattison and Marshall Raucci, Jr., his brother Marshall “Tripp” Raucci and his wife Cristen Raucci, brother William Raucci and his wife Nancy Raucci, father-in-law John Lowell and his wife Carrie Lowell, sister-in-law Madison Hardy, brother-in-law Trevor Lowell and his wife Emily Lowell as well as several nieces and nephews. He is predeceased by his daughter Hunter Adelaide Raucci, brother-in-law Tyler David Hardy, and loving grandparents.

Family and friends will gather to honor and remember Andrew for a period of visitation on Thursday, February 6, 2025, from 4:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton, NH 03842.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held the following morning on Friday, February 7, 2025, from 11:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. at St. Michael Church, 9 Lincoln Street, Exeter, NH 03833. Burial with military honors will be private, and Andrew will be laid to rest at Center Cemetery in North Hampton. To view Andrew's Mass remotely, please click here at the time of the service. (<https://stmichaelparish.org/livestream>)

While we mourn the loss of Andrew – our husband, father, son, brother, and friend – we take comfort in knowing that he is reunited with his daughter Hunter in eternal rest with God.

A GoFundMe memorial has been set up in Andrew's name. Donations to the fund will be dispersed to organizations and causes Andrew was passionate about. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to the GoFundMe memorial. Or grab your fishing rod or surfboard and catch one for Andrew.

“ I only knew Andrew for a short time but I knew he was a smart, driven, passionate person. He adored his family and just hearing some of the stories he told me about his wife and children you could tell he didn't care how hectic or busy he was whether at work or at home that he just loved life. I will miss not getting to know him more.

“ We are deeply saddened to hear that Andrew has passed away. We are praying that God sends each one of you a peace that could only come from above to help you during this most difficult of times.. While we didn't get to share a lot of time with him or get to know his family well, we do remember the times at family gatherings when we had the chance to get a glimpse of his exceptional character and generosity of spirit. Val remembers the time at Jerry Brown and learning to paddle board when we were much younger. He was eager to teach and encourage the technique's of proper safety on the water. He was always a joy to converse with and his experience and wisdom was apparent even at a very young age. God Bless you all and know that we are praying for you. John and Valerie Raucci

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you at this time. I cannot imagine the sorrow you must feel. There are no words that can truly ease the pain; however, some comfort can be found in knowing Christ has reunited him with Hunter. As always, I will keep you all in my prayers.

“ It's hard to find the words. Andrew called me two weeks ago. When I answered the phone he said something like "How are you bro, I was just thinking of you and wanted to check in." He was always there for me, even if we didn't talk often enough. We talked for over an hour that night and I told him I always loved our talks. We were going to plan a trip soon. So hard to imagine he's gone. My love and prayers to Kate, his beautiful children and his family. I will miss him deeply.

“ Andrew was a special gifted individual. A young man wise beyond his years. He had a sensibility about what was 'right' and important. I have met and mentored many young people, he was extraordinary. I am sure that Andrew loved and was so proud of his wife and children as well as his Mon and Dad and siblings. He was his own man, and a j mi an of principal and respect. I am sure he will be greatly missed. With sincerest condolences,

“ I'm very saddened to hear of Andrew's passing. He was a great guy in high school and while we didn't serve together in the Marines, I always thought it was awesome he was a fellow Marine brother too.

“ Raucci was an older fraternity brother and took me under his wing when I was a freshman. We shared a love for surfing and instantly connected as east coast preppies, both fish out of water at Pepperdine. I have a lot of great memories hanging out together and enjoying life. When I think back on those formative years, I remember him as an always positive person. We definitely lost a good one. Rest easy brother. I will try to catch a few waves in your honor. —Jacob Boone
