“ When I first met Anita we were both new to Crestview Circle in Wallingford. A little boy by the name of Brian had been appearing at our door asking to play with my boys and of course they did; there were only boys on our circle. Seven to be exact - 3 Hillberts, 2 Brunners and 2 Jacobs. And of course Quincy; our dog but really every boys dog on the Circle. One day I said to Brian I guess it's time to meet your Mom and so me Brian and Quincy walked up to the top of the circle and that's how I met Anita, my friend and pal through all life's experiences. The highs as well as the lows. Just about every day after that Quincy and I would walk up to the top of the circle and sit on the back porch sipping tea and talking talking talking. There was always a treat for Quincy too. And I did miss that daily trek when I had to sell my house and move. But we did not stop talking and talking and talking. We still visited and we still shared the highs and lows of life.
I will miss our talking talking and talking. I will miss my friend and pal Anita.
