“ *With deepest sympathy.
She will join my other cousins in Gods care. Donna Janecek Drouin*

Donna Drouin - October 12, 2021 at 04:27 PM

“ *My deepest sympathies to all of Ann's children and grandchildren.
Ann cleaned house for me for many years before my husband passed away and she was a fellow veteran as well! What a world traveler too ! She was a great talker with many stories and she was above all a true patriot. She will be missed by all who knew her and her big smile!
Rest in the palm of His hand, Ann.

“ Aunty Ann and I had so many wonderful conversations about 2 of our favorite subjects; Christianity and Politics! She was good and strong and loving and kind. I look forward to spending time with her again in Heaven.

“ Ann's smile could light up a room. We've known each other for 30 years and often attended the sweetheart luncheon at the high school together. She was an adventurous traveler and had great spirit. We'll miss her and offer condolences to her family.

In sympathy,

Debbie Carroll

“ I will miss Ann so much. We went on bus trips together. She was a lot of fun and we spent a lot of time on the phone during these last months. She was our Sodality Treasurer and we had many pleasant meetings.
