“ You have been an inspiration to us all our lives. You taught us how important family is, and to keep them close. That you can never say “I love you “ enough , and we’d come back with, “love you more!” You lived a full and happy life, and were ready to be with Dad. You told us not to grieve when you passed, but to fill our hearts with your love and beautiful memories. Your children, grandchildren and great grandchildren will have many memories and traditions to pass on. Love you more 🧡🙏
