“ Ann has been my wonderful friend for the past 15 years. We met while working at Cabot Stain in Newburyport and became instant friends. We frequented the theatre, movie theatres and have eaten in every restaurant within 25 miles!!! She was so kind, so smart and she was and will always be my "rock" I will miss you and will always remember to "put one foot in front of the other".

Love you to pieces Ann.

“ My husband and I were so fortunate to have Ann as our friend. She enjoyed our neighborhood gatherings, the annual progressive dinners, ladies' cocktail nights, and Christmas parties. Ann was kind, religious, and so caring to her family, especially to John, her brother. We all enjoyed Ann's cooking and baking talents. She always made us delicious Irish soda breads and chocolate chip cookies. Ann will be sadly missed. RIP now. Phil and Kate

It was a great pleasure to meet and hug Ann. I met Ann through Frank while Frank accomplished a complete Rehab on my 1905 Island Path, Beach House. Ann would come by to say hello and at times we all enjoyed a great Happy Hour together @ Hampton Beach.
