“ I had the pleasure of working with Anne in her Andover store. She was a caring and thoughtful person who treated her many repeat customers like family. She had a beautiful and warm style and treated everyone with kindness and respect. Her customers often stopped in just to chat with her and many were friends. I'm so sorry that she has passed. My condolences go out to her husband, daughter and brother. She will be missed by so many. - Jane Rich

“ I was so sorry to hear that Anne passed away. She was such a sweet and kind person and my next-door business neighbor for more than 16 years until our building got sold and we all moved. She was so helpful to me when I first bought my business, providing helpful advice and tips for various situations, and I loved her laugh, too. She always spoke lovingly about her family. My condolences to Dino and Denise and to her brother as well. May she rest in peace.
