“ Sue and Alex - I am so sorry for your terrible loss of Anthony. I did not know him, but I worked with Sue many years ago at Liberty Mutual. I do remember Sue talking about him and how special her sons were to her.

“ Sue and Alex,
I am so very sorry for your loss. I enjoyed hearing the accomplishments that both of your sons have done and the pride and love you have for them. He will always be with you both, shining his light to help you get through the dark days ahead. You both are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To Anthony's family:

Alex, I know you're going to miss your big brother terribly, I hope you realize he'll always be there, over your shoulder watching over you and taking care of you! Nothing can break your special relationship.

Sue, similar sentiments to you, Anthony will always be present in your thoughts and he'll help guide & protect you, just like you were for him throughout his entire life. As I recently said, Anthony was a good boy/man, and that is because of you.

My deepest sympathies go out to both Sue & Alex on your loss.

“ I was fortunate to know Anthony since he was a young boy, whom I met when his mom would bring him and his little brother into work to visit after hours. Both Anthony and his brother loved raiding my candy jar, and to be truthful, I got as much pleasure as them watching each of them count out equal numbers of treats amongst themselves. I would always make sure I had the types of candy I knew they'd enjoy! It really became a game of sorts between us.

Over the years I always made it a point to check in on how Anthony was doing, and I was always pleased to hear of his life choices and accomplishments. Anthony had a lovely personality, a beautiful heart, and a sincerity & kindness which I'll never forget. Anthony will be sorely missed by me.

“ Anthony was as virtuous as a dart player as he was a person. Anthony always knew how to bring optimism to those who spoke to him. He was light with his word, and brightened the room with his presence. It will be hard to go to darts without him, but I will always remember his beauty as a person, and it will push me to continue his happiness with us all.

“ To Anthony's Mom and Brother Alex: I am so sorry for your loss. I was fortunate to be Anthony's boss and mentor for most of his career at Foss. He was bright and enthusiastic, always looking to learn more and improve himself and his value to our Fiber Team. He maintained a positive attitude even when times became difficult and demands grew excessive. He was always welcoming and approachable. He lead by his example of thoughtfulness, fairness, and smart choices. I will miss Anthony and my heart breaks for his family. John Clark
