

Anthony Rumore Jr.

September 8, 1927 - May 9, 2014

Seabrook – Anthony Rumore, Jr., 86, of Seabrook, died Friday, May 9, 2014 at his home with loving family by his side.

He was born in Lawrence, Mass., September 8, 1927 one of nine children to the late Anthony and Angelina (Farrarar) Rumore.

He graduated from Lawrence High School with the class of 1945 and received an associate's degree from Boston College. He was a veteran serving with the US Army during WWII.

Mr. Rumore was employed by Sanders Associates in Nashua as a manufacturing engineer and retired in 1989 with 25 years of service.

He was a communicant of St. Elizabeth Church in Seabrook Beach, was a member of the Raymond E. Walton American Legion Post 70, had wintered in Port Richie, Fla. for several years, and enjoyed hunting, fishing and shuffleboard.

The family would like to thank the nurses and doctors at Exeter Hospital for their wonderful care.

He shared 65 years of marriage with his wife, Josephine M. (Laratonda)

Rumore of Seabrook.

In addition to his wife, family members include three sons, Anthony Rumore, III and Michele of Seabrook, John Rumore and his wife Cynthia of Methuen, Mass., Richard Rumore and his wife Denise of Brooksville, Fla., three grandchildren, Stephanie, John and his wife Jessica and Samantha, many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his eight brothers and sisters.

“ Mr. Rumore was better known to my family as Pup. He is my sister Cindy's father in law but he was more to us than that. He was family to us. Both Nan and Pup are loved by the Bard Family. Pup will be missed by us all. Especially by my grandson, Seth. He loves them both. We have so many fond memories. Cook outs, weddings, birthday parties and holiday gatherings. Pup and Nan have made everyone feel loved whenever they were around. They loved the kids and enjoyed watching them grow. They loved being around family and family loved being around them. Nan, John, Rick, Tony I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. He will always have a special place in my heart.
Love,
