“ Squig was very special to our family. When my son Joey was little he and Edith took him a lot, he called them My D and Kig. Long ago, he saved my daughter Evie's life. When she was 2, she got on someone's raft at the beach and floated almost out to the bridge. He ran to his house, came back lugging a skiff over his shoulders and rowed out to get her. I was due to deliver Tony that week, ( I couldn't swim a stroke, either!) so when he was born I named him Anthony. Also, my first wedding cake was made for their 20th anniversary. Edith wanted about 25 different kinds/colors of flowers on it and though I dreaded making all of them I did it! And from then on, I sold cakes for a living!! Everyone in town that knew Squig will miss him terribly. When he wasn't near enough to hear,we all called him Paul Newman, only he was really better looking than Paul in his day!! RIP Squig, we all loved you, but Deedee is waiting for you.

“ Every time I think of you Squig I think of Gramp Homan. The two of you loved going ice fishing, and of course you guys had to bring a little bit of Apricot Brandy to help keep you two warm... Give Gram and Gramp a big hug for me
