“ It seems like only yesterday that we sat reverently listening to the Kinks. The Big "A" was truly a decent guy.

“ I am so sorry I missed the visiting hours. Art was a good friend throughout high school. I spent my bachelor party playing home run derby at Seaview. Baseball wouldn't have been the same, thanks to Dick Nutter for the photo. Another favorite memory was watching Man from UNCLE with Duey and Dick Jones. A true gentleman, he will be missed. “ Artie was always the soft-spoken gentleman around us girls at WHS. He had the most beautiful eyes. He provided a spark to the basketball team with his spectacular long shots. The guys all loved him. He was one of my father (Big Louie)'s favorites on the team. The tall Greg Pickering and the short Duey made quite the pair as they often entertained us with their comedy routines. I'm so sorry he will not be with us next year to celebrate our 50th class reunion. He will be missed. Sincere condolences to his wife and family. Barbie LaMarca Howard
