

Ashley Nichole Krueger

September 20, 1987 - September 22, 2019

Manchester – Ashley Nichole “Baby Girl” Krueger, 32, of Manchester and formerly of Seabrook and Hampton, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her loving family and dear friends, on Sunday, September 22, 2019 after her courageous battle with cancer. Ashley was born on September 20, 1987 in Exeter, the daughter of Keely (Krueger) Perkins of Manchester.

Ashley was a selfless, good hearted, glass always half-full kind of person. She could be witty and sarcastic and always showed her love for others in so many ways. Ashley had many interests including shopping with her Mom, fashion, music and dancing. A very talented young lady, Ashley was a self-employed arts & crafts person for many years and also a self-taught hair and makeup expert. Above all else, Ashley loved her family and reading to her son Theo were some of the happiest moments of her life.

In addition to her mother, Keely Perkins and her son, Theadene Mattis Burlington Jr., Ashley leaves her daughter, McKenzie Krueger, her stepfathers, John Perkins and Dan Burlington, her stepmother, Pauline Burlington, her brothers, Trevor Perkins, John Perkins, Jr., and Charlie Burlington and her sisters Rachel Burlington and Shannon Reed. She also leaves her grandmother, Deborah Wilson, her aunt, Loree Krueger and her uncles, Brian Krueger and William Wilson.

She was predeceased by her grandparents, Charlie and Ann Burlington, George Perkins and Glenda Eaton.

Services will be held at 3 PM on Saturday, September 28, 2019 at the Rand Memorial Church, 134 South Main St., Seabrook. Burial will be in Wildwood Cemetery. Family and friends are respectfully invited. If desired, memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society (<https://www.cancer.org/involved/donate.html>).

“ Ashley it has been a week since you've been gone and all I have been doing is thinking about us being kids. Thinking about TORTURING you with crickets, You being so damn klutzy that we wouldnt want tou on a 4 wheeler, To the crazy water balloon fights, to you having some cute friends over and me having a crush on every one of them haha.
I miss going to blockbuster and arguing over movies, I miss being a kid.
I miss the years I wasted not being around you.
I miss being able to argue with you because of Jaelynns hair!
I miss your smile
I miss you.
Watch over our babies.

“ I had the privilege to walk alongside Ashley in a season of healing for her. She was courageous to go places she didn't want to go to gain healing she needed. She is one that God always stuck in my heart and mind to pray for after we no longer journeyed together. I always believed she would impact and influence so many people. I know she is resting in her full healing with Jesus and certain I will see her again. - Tiffany Chen

I knew Ashley a few years ago as she attended a parenting group I taught. She enjoyed talking about her children, always had a good sense of humour and motivated to be the beat mom! I enjoyed getting to know her. Glad we will meet again!

“ I will always remember the fun times, the talks, and especially the time I got called in the office for having you dye my hair at work. You were always fun to be around and I remember crying like a baby when they closed our job. I knew I would miss you all. God knows this is a heavy load to bear. Condolences to your family and I will always remember you. Love you baby girl, Veronica Hardaway
