“ I knew Ashley for only a short time and she was a shining light in a dark place. She taught me some valuable lessons and her words of wisdom about standing up for myself, which I have recently failed to put into action, I am now going to take to heart as my way of remembering her. My sincere condolences to her family and all who loved her.

“ My thoughts and condolences go out to the family and friends of Ash. She was an amazing young lady with so much to give, and such a big heart. We had a tremendous amount of respect for one another, and I'm lucky to have been close with Ashley and spend time with her recently. A true friend, athlete, and a young woman of unknown strength, she is deeply missed.

“ No words can describe how I felt when I heard this horrible news. I remember when you were first born and I was a teenager and we lived next to you, your mom and dad. Then when I moved back to Prospect Street, 5 years later, you became best friends with my niece and nephew. You were always such a sweet girl and you will be truly missed. Taken too soon. RIP Ashley

“ Ashley, No more hurting. I remember the morning you work me up. Gram, Gram, wake up, the firemen are all over the yard. They said to evacuate the whole house because there was a gas pipe broke outside in the street, close to the house. I will miss your smiling face and kind heart. All the nights you and Sam had fun on the trampoline.

Our whole family is sad you are gone. RIP Beautiful Ashley.

“ Ashley and I had nights where we'd stay up all night laughing and telling jokes. We'd play games and got along so well. She always made me laugh and I'm going to miss her. I'm so sorry for your loss
