

Barbara M Collins

May 20, 1930 - November 11, 2024

Hampton—Barbara M. Collins, 94, of Hampton passed away peacefully on Monday, November 11, 2024.

Barbara was born on May 20, 1930, in Milford, Massachusetts to Robert and Frances (Kelley) Collins. She was the second daughter of four. She survived her beloved three siblings, Patricia Cloon, Cynthia Chaggaris and Ellen Roughsedge. Never married, Barbara devoted her life to her family and her two nephews, Kevin and Robert Roughsedge.

Barbara worked her whole life at Kemper Insurance in Quincy, Massachusetts. Early in life, she lived with her sister Ellen Roughsedge in West Roxbury, Massachusetts. Barbara also lived with her older sister Patricia Cloon in West Peabody, Massachusetts. From her early childhood years, Barbara spent her Summers at Hampton Beach later moving to Hampton full-time on Highland Avenue and then on Mace Road when her sister Cynthia needed her.

Barbara is survived by her nephew Robert Roughsedge and his three children, Morgan, Lauren and James.

The family wishes to thank the staff at Webster at Rye for their kindness to Barbara in her final days.

Family and friends will gather for burial at 10 AM on Friday, November 15th at the High Street Cemetery in Hampton where Barbara will join her sisters once again.

Cemetery Details

High Street Cemetery

150 High Street
Hampton, NH

Previous Events

Graveside

NOV 15. 10:00 AM (ET)

High Street Cemetery
150 High Street
Hampton, NH

Tribute Wall

JE

“Forever grateful for this beautiful lady being a part of my life.
Blessed to have spent her birthday with her this year. Fly high 💕💕

Jessica - November 14, 2024 at 01:13 PM

HC

“We will miss Barbara, having known her since she was a teenager working at Hampton Beach, and her many years of living here in Hampton with Cynthia. A great person. Barbara was a very kind person and was a good friend to all who knew her. We always kidded about our being the same age and our working at Hampton Beach as teenagers.

H. Alfred Casassa

H. Alfred Casassa - November 13, 2024 at 11:22 AM

CW

“Barbara was an interesting and articulate storyteller who loved to share. We are grateful to have known her and been in her company this past year at Webster. May you rest in eternal peace Barbara.
Vic De Marco and Cindy Willis

Cynthia Willis - November 13, 2024 at 06:56 AM