“ Oh Bumps.. you were so wonderful to me, Dutch, Dutchie and Brian for the seven years we had on Warner Lane. How blessed we were to have you next door...to have you as our adopted mother and Mimi..Such happy times always. And how hard we cried leaving you that last day. I love you and know you are with your family in heaven. God Bless Bridget, Susan, Mary-Ellen and Cynthia and the entire family as you go through this loss.

Many fond memories of Barbara aka "Bumps" and her dear husband Raymond from a young child to many years older now, I always enjoyed seeing them on my visits to New Hampshire. I know she will be greatly missed as she was the center of her large loving family. Rest in peace Bumps ! Love and condolences Donald Malizia
