“ *Betty, a beautiful lady, sweet as a rose, tender loving heart. Such love and a serving soul for Christ. Dedication to the church. My parents knew yours from church, then I got to know them as well. I hadn't seen them for awhile but went caroling there I think 2years back. It's great to see both and their excitement to see us all. The love they had shown on their faces for one another. She boasted on how many years they had celebrated Christmas together. Always will remember the twinkle in her eye and that smile. God bless you all at this time of sorrow. Take care of your dad more then ever. He has lost the love of his life. Till they meet again.
