What a fine collection of life time photos! I was a part of the class of 1957 at Natoma High School but only for the Freshman and Sophomore year because my family move to Olathe Kansas where I finished High school. I even found myself in a high school group picture which was really fun! I sure remember Bob and respected him as a fine person.

*I know he will be missed in this life as he moves on to eternity!
God bless all of you! EVA (CRAIG) HEROD*

What a beautiful collection of Bob's life. Every picture had a smile which is what I remember the most. He was also upbeat and joking. I will miss him. Michelle RN

“ Aww, it's so good to see Bob again, here. So many of my fondest memories growing up involve the Millers. Camping and climbing mountains, Christmas dinners, fighting over who gets the top bunk...I hope your memories soon turn all your tears into smiles. Up, up, and away Bob! “ Rest in peace Mr. Miller. I have wonderful memories of living in North Hampton and all the great times we all had in the neighborhood. It was the best group of people to grow up with. I always remember Mr Miller with a smile on his face and something funny to say. My heart goes out to Mrs Miller, Brad , Tim and your families. Bless you...

“ On many occasions I'd hear one of my kids chatting outside and there was a good chance they'd be talking to Bob. Bob and Hope have been good friends to our family since the day we moved in, we will truly miss you Bob. Love from all the Farrell's.

“ Here's one more neighborhood kid that would never utter "Bob" or "Hope". You'll always be " Mr. & Mrs. Miller" to us. Seems like you were everyone's second set of parents.
I only have smiles when I think of Mr. Miller. He was truly a rock for me when I needed it the most. Like Matt wrote, he was ALWAYS there for encouragement. I can never thank him enough.
He was a classic!
God bless you Mrs. Miller, Brad, Tim and all the other family members.

“ Like Matt, I could never call him Bob, including the last time I saw him a month ago. I gave him a kiss and said, "Bye Mr. Miller." He said, "when are you going to start calling me Bob?" Mr. Miller was always at the end of the street or walking around the block. Or I was at his house playing basketball on the "neighborhood" court or playing pool in his game room. He was around and present in our lives. Christmas Eve with the Miller family will always be one of my favorite childhood memories, and probably why I host a Christmas Eve gathering for friends and family every year. I'll miss you Mr. Miller, and so will the neighborhood. Kristen (Peters) de Oliveira

“ How blessed I was to be Mr. Miller's friend and neighbor. A master of the deadpan-style of humor, Mr. Miller (sorry Bob, I just can't call you Bob) was more than a neighbor. He was a friend, a mentor, a go-to person in a time of need, a skilled driver's-ed instructor (to many of the soon-to-be 16 year olds in the neighborhood who wanted to get behind the wheel of his BMW or beloved supercharged Peugeot) and a man whom would come out to his side-yard basketball court at 1:00am to talk with a somewhat disenchanted and rudderless adolescent...not to tell the young man to gather his basketball, turn down the boom box blaring Pink Floyd's "The Wall" and return to his home across the street. Rather, it was to ask the boy how he was, what was going on in his life and was there anything he could do to help ease the pain brought on by the "confusion of life" that this high-schooler was experiencing. This happened often and, much to my benefit, resonated deeply as I embrace many of his words of encouragement and pithy aphorisms to this day. Every neighborhood needs a Bob T. Miller. How blessed I was to be in the neighborhood he called home. Thank you, Mr. Miller. Thank you for always believing in me and thank you for your friendship, a friendship that I will carry with me...forever.

“ Memories. Where to start. I've known Bob longer than anyone in NH. We met as Eastern Airlines new hires in Miami. He directed Penny and I to North Hampton when we were based in Boston and we spent many enjoyable Thanksgivings together. His dry humor and quick wit will be missed.

As an Eastern and Kiwi pilot, I join Tom in remembering Bob. He had a calming and profound influence on us all. My wife, Kathy, remembers Bob from working in Captain Sawyer's office. Our heartfelt condolences go out to Bob's family.

“ Hope and family,

It was a sad start for the day as Rob broke the news of Bob's passing. Now he's at peace with no suffering and flying once again. This time though his co-pilot and crew wear their own wings and are guiding him through Heavenly skies!

I'll truly miss his gentle demeanor and dry wit, ever present whenever we visited your home. He was fun to be around and always a gentleman. As surely that Rob will offer, I do the same that if you need anything at all, we are here for you.

*Heartfelt condolences,

Carolyn and I were privileged to come to know Bob and Hope through visits with my brother Dave and Betsy down the street. He was always ready with a smile and a wry joke or anecdote that always hit the spot. When you were with Bob he made you feel as if you were his best friend, and I think everyone he met felt that way. He was a gem of a guy and the world is a much poorer place without him. Our thoughts are with Hope and the Family. Alan and Carolyn Peters

I have amazing memories in the neighborhood with Bob and my children. He's wit and smile just made you feel happy. My Son Curtis and friends always went up to the Basketball court it was the thing to do in our neighborhood. I always called him Caption he was so much fun to be around. Who can forget the progressive parties in the neighborhood at Christmas time at the Miller's We will always have fond memories of those year's. Dear Hope and Family may God hold you in the palm of his hand always. Love Mayellen, Curtis, & Crysta Fournier.

Dear Hope and Family,

Though we didn't know each other too well, I recall the sadness I felt when the Eastern pilots lost their jobs. Bob and others careers were ended, and now he has "gone West" as pilots say I for one will not forget his exemplary service in Viet Nam and the sacrifices made for his country. We will all miss him.
