“ I considered Breena my daughter in law for many years. Her son, Edward Butler, who was not mentioned, is my grandson. We had been searching for her. I loved her like my own daughter, and she was always "family" to me. RIP, Bree.... You are loved...still. Fly with the angels, babe.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. The Bible makes this comforting promise: "Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted, he saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalm 34:18) It also assures us: "Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you." (Psalm 55:22) May these thoughts bring you a measure of comfort at this difficult time.

*Sorry we lost touch with Breena and Andy. Their parents were my first cousins. Its been a few years since we saw either of them but thought of them often along with their grandparents. We pray that Lance will find comfort in knowing we cared for Breena.

My name is Maureen Cain, and I was for many years considered Breena's mother-in-law. I am the grandmother to her son Edward Butler, who was not listed as a survivor. I loved her as my own daughter, and my heart aches for all who loved her. RIP, Breena. You are loved, still.
