“ Brenda was a ray of sunshine. I have always admired her fun spirit, as she was full of life and lit up my day. My son remembers her smile and laughter, and Brenda always made time to make him feel special. Brenda loved children, epitomized happiness, joy, and her sense of humor always put me at ease. Brenda was equally as talented, extremely intelligent, always looking to learn more. Even after retirement, she would inquire about other industries, and desired to keep going. I will always remember her so fondly, raising her hand across the way, waving with zest just to say hello. We will miss her dearly.
