“ Bringer Family,
I'm so sorry for your loss. Brian was such an amazing person. My family loved him. My girls will forever be asking "is that Brian in the big white truck". He was always beeping the loud horn for the girls, they loved it. He was always smiling and happy. I'm so thankful I saw him before he passed. We had a great conversation and he was always talking about all his kids! He may be gone, but he will forever be watching over all of you, and hopefully that gives me a small bit of comfort.

I cant even begin to touch on how much you did for me , awesome conversations, the money you put in my pocket when I was alone in the world with 4 kids, the best valentines day gift I have ever received lol, and just plain getting to watch your beautiful children and the amazing job you did. You were a man with one of the kindest hearts I have ever known and you never gave yourself enough credit for that. But I guess that is part of the perfect package that made up who you were. I loved that you were a rebel, I loved that you were passionate about everything, I loved being able to call you friend. Peace to you , you are home with your love <3 Forever*

“ I was the Food Pantry Director at Council of Social Concern when Melba Express donated a truck to pick up our Food Bank orders. Brian was the driver, and we had many conversations on those trips to Boston. I came to know him as a man of strong values, a generous nature, an innate sense of fairness and a good sense of humor. It was also apparent that he loved his children and grandchildren more than anything in the world. Rest in peace, Brian, you left this earth way too soon.

“ Brian left the world leaving a tremendously positive impact on many people. He will be missed greatly and remembered well. It's not easy accepting death, and it's even more shocking when someone so caring and giving could leave the world so soon. There are not enough words to describe the feeling of emptiness I have in learning that I'll never get to have another moment with him, or thank him for the kindness he has given to me and so many others.

You are gone but not forgotten, rest in piece Brian Beringer.

I knew Brian from way back when.... I went to school with his wife Patty since the 5th grade. I remember Patty all excited when she first started dating Brian! Brian is with Patty now, looking over all you beautiful children. Bless all of you in your time of loss. Always remember... they are always with you in a different form!

Indeed this man left way too soon,

When I heard the news it was hard for me to react. I felt numb. My friend Debbie and I met him at a open house at a realtor's office. it was cold and windy, and there was a cook out he was flipping the burgers. He was so easy to talk too. We went there to rent one of the little houses for a couple of weeks we ended up with "Erin" we became forever friends instantly. He was a good generous man, he opened up his home to us constantly. Always ready for us, to take us out on the town and to bring us to a restaurant I and Debbie will miss him. we talked a few months ago to let him know I want to visit with him and the kids this summer. He was loved by so many. there was not a place we went in Hampton that did not know Brian. So now he rest.

Mandy, Micha, Joshia, Hannah, & Abbey, I am Becky Grant part of the "Avon, Maine Family" I just wanted to say that Rick and I are thinking of you all everyday during this time. Brian meant a lot to Rick and I. At camp, over the years when we heard that he arrived at Jason and Norma's we hopped on a 4-wheeler asap to go down and say "Hi" and to get that big hug he always gave. There are so many people that I have met in my life but your father was the most kind and compassionate men I have ever met. He loved the outdoors so much and he really enjoyed every single second no matter Rain/Shine/Freezing cold or wicked HOT. I can say that I am extremely blessed to have called him our friend. Amazing man ... simply amazing. You all are in our thoughts.

“ Dear Hannah, Mandy, Josiah, Micah, and Abby;

I'm so sorry to hear about your dad. I can't imagine what you guys are going through. Even though I haven't seen you all in some time, I'll never forget how much your dad loved Pearl Jam! Here is a song for you, about the loss of a friend.

Love you guys, Kristin

*"And wherever you've gone,
And where ever we might go,
It don't seem fair,
Today just disappeared.
Your lights reflected now,
Reflected from a far,
We were but stones,
Your light made us stars."*

*All of this seems so surreal....so bittersweet. My heart goes out to each of you, Amanda, Mica, Josiah, Hannah and Abigail. I remember when your father and mother started dating, I had been friends with Patty since the 5th grade. I remember how passionate your Dad was about any subject that meant something to him. I remember how your parents only had eyes for each other, I was happy to stand up for them at their wedding. We had lots of good times together. I remember how sad I felt when I heard of Patty's passing, (I was living in AL at the time and couldn't make it home)...and how was Brian going to raise five children. Well he did it! When I spoke with him on the phone, he spoke of all five of you kids...nothing but Love spoken. We spoke of younger years but, Brian just couldn't speak of Patty...it was too painful for him. I know in my heart that your mother must have been guiding him somehow...From my heart to yours...I hope you find Peace in knowing how very much your parents were Loved.
Sincerely, Dianne "Ciociolo" MacNicol*
