

Brian C. Goff

July 6, 1969 - April 16, 2026

Hampton - Brian C. Goff, 56, died unexpectedly while in his favorite place in the world, The Northeast Kingdom of Vermont.

Brian was born in Portsmouth, NH, the son of Harriet Rich Goff and the late Charles Goff. Brian grew up in Hampton. He attended Hampton schools and Winnacunnet High School. When he was seventeen he was selected to participate in an agricultural exchange and spent 2 months in Australia working on a dairy farm.

Brian was predeceased by his grandparents, Lincoln and Peg Rich; George and Beatrice Goff. Brian leaves behind a son, Weylin; his sister, Stephanie Bolduc; his mother, Harriet; his close friend, Eric and many others too numerous to mention.

“ Brian was my first boyfriend who will always have a part of my ❤️. My happiest memories with him were working at Steve Marston's dairy farm, skiing, adopting my first Boxer boy and hanging out with the Mason family. Harriet, you raised a hard working man who loved life, animals and his family. I will miss him sharing glimpses into his life up in Vermont and at home. My wish is that your happy memories of him carry through this difficult time. ❤️❤️❤️❤️ Love you -

“ I'm at a loss for words. Brian and I spent a lot of time getting in trouble during high school. We saw a ton of concerts together and laughed a lot. I can hear his laughing in my head. My condolences to Harriet and Stephanie.

“ I did not know Brian when he was younger, though he was in school with my son Lyle. He was part of a large group of kids who bowled and hung out at my family’s former business, Lafayette Lanes in North Hampton. But I did get to know him in the past few years, when he lived with his Mom in Hampton, Harriet, my lifelong friend. A man of few words, needless chit-chat, or the usual social graces, but always friendly and forever a help and comfort to his mother. I will remember him fondly, as my heart 💜 aches for Harriet and Stephanie.....Sandra V. Marston, Hampton, NH
