Bruce E. Molloy

Hampton – Bruce E. Molloy, 70, of Hampton, formerly of Salem, died Tuesday, June 4, 2013 at Oceanside Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation where he resided the past five years and received wonderful care by their compassionate staff.

He was born in Lawrence, Mass., May 28, 1943 a son of the late Kenneth I. and Linda A. (Arlequeeuw) Molloy.

Bruce graduated from Woodbury High School in Salem with the Class of 1961 and had been employed as a custodian for the Salem and Hampton School Districts retiring after many years of service. He had resided in Hampton since 1989.

An avid reader he was well known at the Lane Memorial Library in Hampton. Bruce was a huge fan of the New York Giants and he enjoyed listening to and attending Broadway musicals as well as going for long walks whenever he could and enjoying meals at Hoaty's Restaurant.

He leaves two daughters, Michelle L. Molloy and her longtime companion Michael Williams of Gloucester, Mass., Jill Murphy of Derry, two brothers, Brian Molloy and his wife Judith of Reynoldsburg, OH, Kenneth I. Molloy, Jr. of Mass., five grandchildren, Cameron and Gabriel LaDuke, Kendra Molloy-Bergeron, Eliza and Jen Murphy, his longtime friend, Alfred Pierce and his wife Mary of Hampton, nieces and nephews.

Private services will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton.
