“ Thank You to all of you for your kind words of encouragement. The outpouring of Love, flowers, cards, and condolences has filled our hearts. It is helping us to begin the healing process. It is also a testimony to Caitlinn and the work she did for all her peers, even risking her own survival in order to help them. Also, Thank You to all that have posted on this website, all who attended the wake, and all who attended the Mass at OLMM church. May the Lord bless all of you with peace.

“ Dear Clair & Bob, I am so sorry for your loss of Caitlinn. I know that you loved her dearly. It is very sad when we loose a child. It's not suppose to be like that. But life is not fair. I pray that she is at peace with our Heavenly Father. And I pray for both of you, may God carry you at this very difficult time. I wish there were words that I could say that could take away this terrible night mare and pain. The only comfort I know of, comes from God. Lean on Him.

*With Deepest Sympathy,

“Thank you Caitlinn for all you did in the short time you were here. I will always remember you as someone who had a kind heart, good sense of humor and wanting to help people. I will always remember our times together at the Thinking Cup in the North End of Boston strategizing our next steps. One thing I always noticed there was always a sparkle in your eyes.

You will be missed, and now its time to rest as we will pick up where you left off. Until we meet again....

Every morning and evening this week, God has sent me one of His deer that I have named Caitlinn. She is young and beautiful. Sometimes she brings several of her friends. God sent Caitlinn to us many many years ago and now has taken her back. Thank You Caitlinn for the good times we had together, I will always love you and hold dear those wonderful memories we made together. And now, as I release you to Him, and as my heart breaks, I know that your suffering has ended. You once again are that beautiful fawn like being that God gave to us thirty-three years ago.

Caitlinn D. Gale-Your battle is over now. I am so sorry for the loss all the people that loved you unconditionally are dealing with. Many memories will flood our minds of your kindness, love for animals and the wilderness! You shared with me your love of being outdoors and going snowmobiling as well as wanting to help other with special needs.

You were quick to jump right in, to be first with a fast thinking mind to help save others.

It is with such sadness that your life here on earth at such a young age has ended.

I pray that you have found peace and by the Grace of God that you are with him. Vince Gill-Go Rest High On That Mountain says it all. Amen.
