“ Carl was like a brother to me. I've had many fond memories dating back to our childhood. Countless cookouts, Fenway, The Garden, Patriots games, vacations, boating, hanging out at restaurants and just sitting around talking. We even lived together out in California.

I will miss him everyday for the rest of my life. As we all know life down here is a gift not a guarantee. But one thing he could guarantee is that you would always have the best time when you're with him.

Rest in peace brother Carl.

“ So sorry for your loss. Carl and I were work companions for at least 10 years working as Linemen we worked on the same truck side by side. Doing so we got to know each other pretty well. But what can I say but we had fun it never felt like work. We laughed and the trouble we caused or got our selves into. I truly wouldn't want to do it without Carl by my side. Not only was Carl a great work partner but a true friend and someone I would call my brother. Till we meet again my old friend.

“ Remembering fondly, Carl being our boat Captain and Tour Guide showing us the beautiful sites and sometimes hurricane damage of the Florida Coast. He was caring and knowledgeable as he and Carolyn were happiest on the water. RIP Carl
